16TH YEAR. NO. 2.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., MONDAY, JUNE 11, 1900.

TWO CENTS

OPEN AIR SERVICE ON FOUNDATIONS

Novel Exercises Held at the St. Stephen's Protestant Episcopal Church

PRIOR TO CORNER STONE LAYIN

Which Will Be Performed at 7 O'clock This Evening by Bishop Leonard.

MEETING OF THE MEN'S CLUB.

The session of the Men's Social club of St. Stephen's Episcopal church, held at the parish building Saturday night, was largely attended. This event marked the beginning of the services connected with the laying of the corner stone of the new church. The evening was spent very enjoyably by the members and their guests, numbering in all about 100. A program consisting of songs, recitations and addresses was rendered. The principal addresses of the evening were by Dr. F. E. J. Lloyd and Rev. Edwin Weary. Light refreshments were served, bringing to a close the last of the meetings of the club until September.

The services Sunday morning were begun by the holy communion, followed by a children's service at 9:30. The morning service at 10 o'clock was choral. The sermon at this service was very able and eloquent, Dr. Lloyd taking as his subject "Trinity."

The principal service of the day was that held on the foundation of the church at 7 o'clock in the evening. Temporary seats had been placed on the foundations and these were taxed to their utmost by the large crowd which was in attendance. The music furnished by the vested choir was of a high order and greatly appreciated by the congregation. Short but interesting addresses were listened to, delivered by Rev. Dr. Lloyd and Rev. Weary. The contents of the box to be placed in the corner stone were read to the congregation by the rector, Rev. Weary, and the box was sealed this morning.

Rev. Weary also stated that the 17 windows of the church will represent the 17 principal events of the life of Christ, giving a concise history of our Lord's life from His birth to ascension. The singing at this service was fine and hearty, the congregation enjoying the open air worship.

Bishop W. A. Leonard arrived on the noon train, together with other interested members of the church, and will have charge of the ceremonies of the laying of the corner stone, which will take place at 7 o'clock this evening. An informal reception will be held in the parish building after the evening's ceremonies. The music will be by the vested choir and by Prof. Manley's band.

The trowel of solid silver which will be presented to Bishop Leonard will bear the following inscription: "Presented to the Rt. Rev. W. A. Leonard, D. D., bishop of Ohio, by the congregation of St. Stephen's church in memory of the laying of the corner stone of the new Episcopal church, East Liverpool, June 11, 1900."

The Chicago Temple.

The News Review has received from the hand of Mrs. Carse, president of the board of trustees of the W. C. T.

U. Temple, Chicago, who recently visited this city, a beautiful picture of the handsome building. All the ladies now need to raise of the $300,000 they started out to collect is $60,000. The rentals from the building now approach nearer $200,000 than $100,000 annually. This noble band of women will surely win, as they deserve to.

SHE BRANDED HIM.

She Termed Him Graveyard Robber and Thief and Scared Him Badly.

It was in the old graveyard. The lady is well known in this city. She was on a visit to the grave of a loved one, at an early hour in the morning, when she discovered a portly, well dressed man, shears in hand, robbing the graves of beautiful flowers. She indignantly accosted the thief and ghoul with:

"You're a fine specimen of humanity? It's bad enough to have the little boys steal flowers from the graves; but it's indescribably mean to see a man like you engaged in such work." The man attempted to answer the angry lady, telling her that men and women had been there all the morning cutting flowers, and that he thought he had as good a right to them as anybody else; but she answered him with:

"Oh, yes; because there are other miserable thieves in town, you must become a thief also. I'm ashamed of you, and you ought to be ashamed of yourself."

He further attempted defense, driven to bay, asserting that he had not taken any flowers to which she had any just claim, and then she warned him with:

"You falsify, sir; you have robbed me and mine; you hold flowers in your hand which came from my dear one's grave; those flowers grow on no other plot in this burial ground save mine, and I'm going to follow you up and have you arrested."

And then he gave up the battle and sneaked away, followed by the now thoroughly incensed lady, who intended to make her threat good. The flower purloiner and grave robber was too clever for her, however, and as he turned down an alleyway a few yards in advance of her, he darted into some place of security and could not be unearthed.

It is safe to say that he will not attempt to secure flowers from the old graveyard in the future.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN.

The Children's Day Exercises Were Largely Attended Yesterday Morning.

Children's day services were held at the First Presbyterian church yesterday morning and were largely attended. The auditorium of the church was appropriately decorated with flowers and looked very pretty, two large flags gracing the rear of the pulpit. The services were conducted under the direction of Prof. R. E. Rayman, and consisted of music, songs and recitations by the children, who had been well drilled and showed careful training. Short addresses were made by Prof. Rayman and Rev. S. C. George.

Cemeteryless.

Irondale has no cemetery, and those in the vicinity are all full. The township trustees are to be petitioned to purchase a site for a new cemetery.

Attorney Speaker.

The condition of Attorney C. S. Speaker, who has been ill for some days, is much improved, although he is still confined to his bed.

The ball game Saturday between the Dresden and Standard clubs was not a brilliant one and was replete with lots of hard hitting and yellow fielding.

The Dresdens won the game by a score of 19 to 14, but they failed to get as many hits off Strauss as the Standards did off Barker.

Fred Howard, who was playing left field for the Standards, was hit on the back of the head by a pitched ball in the eighth inning and for several minutes was unconscious. He wore a stiff hat and this undoubtedly broke the force of the ball.

The Standards were weakened by the absence of the two Godwins, as Carey was almost a dead loss at third and Dailey at short was not much better. The Dresdens didn't have McCarron and they felt his loss considerably.

The game was a scrappy one throughout and more kicks were registered than in any previous contest. When a ball was hit safe to the outfield Hancock would play close to first to prevent a runner from cutting the base. As a result he was knocked down twice.

The batting honors of the game belong to Carey and Clarke, who each made four hits.

There were no startling or phenomenal plays in the game, although the Standards struck a batting streak in the seventh and made six hits before the side was retired, two of them doubles. Dresdens had their streak in the eighth, when they made five hits. In the eighth Barker succeeded in striking out three men, but two of them scored, the catcher dropping the third strike.

Notes.

Strauss pitched a good game, and with the proper support would have won.

Hancock should play a little farther away from first and give the runner a chance.

McGuire broke the spell and made his first hit of the season.

Carey's second hit would have been good for a home run if he hadn't cut first and had to go back.

The Dresdens went to second place. They are a hard hitting team and the best pitcher in the league will have his troubles when he faces them.

Carey easily leads the league in batting, with an average of .666, Godwin is second with .583.

The Murphy-Thompson team will cross bats with K., T. & K. tomorrow.

Clark is now third in the hitters of the league with an average of .570.

A DISASTROUS RIDE.

Olan Dawson and His Sisters Went Buggy Riding to the Country Yesterday.

Olan Dawson and his sisters, Misses Cora and Moredo, started for the country yesterday afternoon to make a visit with some relatives. They had gone but a short distance from the city when Olan struck the horse a gentle tap with the whip. It kicked, and in so doing got one leg over the shaft. It hobbled along on three legs for a short distance and then fell over in a ditch, taking the buggy and occupants with it. They were thrown out, but none of them injured. Olan sat on the horse's head until a farmer arrived and helped him out of the difficulty.

DIRECTORS HERE.

McBride and Hoopes Arrived in the City This Morning and Are Looking After Cases.

Infirmity Directors McBride and Hoopes were in the city today looking after four cases that they have on their hands in this city. They have had three of the cases for some time, but the other one is a new one and the person is ill with an attack of typhoid fever. The party came here from Summit county and the infirmity directors of that county will have to stand the expenses.

Can't Transfer Funds.

Attorney General Sheets has rendered an opinion that county commissioners have no power to transfer funds from one fund to another.

—Miss Anne Lee, of Fifth street, will spend tomorrow in Pittsburg.

TRUSTEES DON'T FAVOR THE PLAN

Of Having No Township Doctor and Tell Some of Their Experiences.

A PHYSICIAN CHARGED $25

For Tending a Patient One Day While Another One Asked $30.

FOR TAKING CARE OF A CASE.

The township trustees have not yet selected a physician to fill the office of township doctor, but will probably do so this week.

Trustee Albright in speaking of the matter stated last night that some of the physicians of the city did not desire to have them appoint a township physician, but wanted them to let each physician take care of the business he got and the trustees could pay him. The trustee said they did not favor the plan and gave some of their experience along the line. In speaking of the matter the trustee said that sometime ago one of the physicians of the city had charge of a township case for one day and when he presented his bill it stated that he had made 12 visits and his claim was $25. The trustees refused to pay it and offered him $5, which he refused, and threatened to sue them. They told him to go ahead and sue and waited several weeks for him to do so, but one morning he sent to their office and said he would accept the $5.

Another case was a prison case and when the trustees sent the township physician to look after it he found a physician in charge. The physician said he would keep the case, but he did so without the consent of the trustees, who were surprised a short time later to receive a bill from him for $30. The trustees didn't pay him one cent, although they would not have objected to giving him at least $10.

The trustees say that it would cost them more for medicine under the plan the physicians like than it costs them for a physician and medicine now.

NO BUSINESS.

The Police Did Not Make an Arrest Saturday Night or Sunday. One Patrol Run.

Mayor Davidson had a clean docket this morning, as there was not an arrest or complaint Saturday night or Sunday.

The patrol was called to the West End Saturday night to gather in a sleeper, but the sleeper had flown when the patrol arrived and all chance of an arrest was gone.

GOOD SHOWING.

School Enumeration Will Show an Increase of at Least 200 Over Last Year.

The report of School Enumerator John C. Wallace will be presented to the board of education at the meeting tonight. The enumerator will not make public his work until the board meets, but it is known that the enumeration will show a gain of at least 200 over last year.

GRANDVIEW.

The finest residence addition ever made to East Liverpool is situated on the east side of the Calcutta Road just north of the McKinnon Homestead and within 10 minutes walk of the Diamond.

City Water Mains are laid throughout this addition.

Gas will be piped to this addition in a few weeks.

Street Car Line is being constructed and will run through Grandview.

Paved Street and Sidewalks and Electric Light extends from the city to within one block of Grandview.

From the numerous inquiries as to when these lots would be placed in the market there is no doubt but that the limited number of lots in the plat now offered the public will be sold in a short time. There are good, solid and substantial reasons for this demand for lots in Grandview--beautiful for situation--magnificent views of the Ohio Valley--above the smoke and fog--within easy reach of the city. Do you want to own your own home? Do you want to quit paying rent? Then Grandview is the place for you to save your rent money and let it buy you a home. See how easy we make it for you.

$20.00 today and $2.00 every two weeks buys a lot worth $200.00.

"AND A LITTLE CHILD."

East Liverpool Incidents Connected
With the India Famine
Relief Fund.

A little girl, bright and winsome in appearance, glided into the sanctum sanctorum of the News Review office on Saturday afternoon and laid a small paper package in the hands of the writer, saying:

"That's for the little children who are so hungry."

The little one was not more than 5 or 6 years old, and we questioned her as to where the contents of the paper bag were to be sent, asking if she intended them to be sent to the little children who were starving in India, when a bright smile and an eagerly nodding head answered in the affirmative.

Upon opening the package after the departure of mother and daughter we found a silver dollar, contributed by the parent, and a nickel and 51 pennies, the gift of the little one, her savings fund being called upon for the emergency. The mother stated that her little daughter had heard them talking about the starving children in India, and she would not rest content until she had gathered her treasure trove together and given it to the sufferers. God bless mother and child and prosper them in basket and in store.

Shortly after this occurrence a gentleman called at the office and laid two silver half dollars on our desk, saying:

"Fifty cents for my wife, captain, and fifty cents for myself; not much, but it will do some good; we read your paper and staid away from the circus and concluded to give the amount thus saved to the famine sufferers." God bless husband and wife.

Later in the afternoon a fine looking lady, benevolence and love of God and humanity shining in her refined face, laid three new and crisp one dollar bills on our desk, remarking:

"I read your comments on the India famine and felt that I must give this amount."

"What name, lady?" was our query of the visitor.

"No name, please. I don't want my name published."

We explained that we would not make the name public in the News Review, but wanted it for the Christian Herald, New York, and in order to protect us in handling the fund, and we thus learned our visitor's name. God bless and prosper her. The Master will give her credit on His books on high.

A few more additions made a neat little fund, and the money went out from our postoffice, by means of a money order to the Christian Herald, on Saturday afternoon.

Are there not many more good Samaritans in this city? Don't despise the little things in the way of giving. Pennies make nickels, nickels make dimes, and dimes make dollars. The emergency is great. God is calling upon human instrumentalities. Don't delay. Your contributions will go forward on the same day they are received at this office. They are going to the Christian Herald, Bible House, New York city, daily, from all over this great nation, and then great sums are sent over to India by telegraph, and thousands upon thousands of human beings are saved from the horrible death of starvation. Give that which you give with a free heart and a free hand, and God will surely bless you. He has so promised; and His promises are never broken.

That Franchise.

Buckeye State.

The statement that Messrs. Healy and Hoefgen, of East Liverpool, have been granted a franchise to operate an electric road through the streets of this city, is erroneous. The gentlemen have applied for a franchise, and the council directed the solicitor to draw up the ordinance; but it has not yet been acted upon, nor will it be for at least a fortnight, as the law requires the publication for three weeks of notice that such application has been made. There is no doubt, however, that the franchise will be granted, and perhaps little doubt that the long wished for and dreamed of trans-county electric road will become a reality during the next two years.

The seventeenth annual meeting of the Women's Home Missionary society of Steubenville Presbytery, held at Potter chapel last week, was the most successful meeting the society has ever held. A collection of $15 was taken up for the contingent fund. Resolutions were adopted thanking the ladies of Mingo in the heartiest terms for their unlimited hospitality and also thanking Rev. and Mrs. Platts for their many kindnesses and their excellent musical selections. Acting upon a cordial invitation from the people of Denison it was decided to hold the next annual meeting in that city in June 1901. The following officers were elected:

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY

MONDAY, JUNE 11, 1900.

This Date In History—June 11.

1504—Roger Bacon, commonly called Friar Bacon, scholar, alchemist and liberal writer, died at Oxford; born 1214. Bacon was educated at Oxford and at Paris. He took the vows of the Franciscan order at Oxford.

1776—The Continental congress named the committee of five to draft the Declaration of Independence. Jefferson wrote the draft, which he submitted to Franklin and Adams and adopted their verbal alterations in a copy reported to the full committee.

1798—Napoleon seized the island of Malta on his Egyptian campaign. The seizure of Malta by the French was the indirect cause of its acquisition by England. After the battle of the Nile and the downfall of Napoleon's oriental schemes the Maltese arose in insurrection and compelled the French to take refuge in the fortress of Valetta. Siege and famine reduced them to straits, and they surrendered to the English, who had come to aid the Maltese. England took the island and has since held it.

1847—Sir John Franklin, naval officer and arctic explorer, died in the arctic regions; born 1790.

1870—William Gilmore Simms, author, died at Charleston; born there 1806.

1898—Spaniards attacked Colonel Huntington's marines at Guantanamo; first flight of Americans in Cuba. Dr. John Blair Gibbs killed.

1899—General Lawton's division fought the Filipinos at Las Pinos. The Rev. William Garden Blaikie, D. D., LL. D., Scotch theologian, died at North Berwick, Scotland; born 1820.

All that is left of Oom Paul is a reminiscence.

Russian designs on china do not appear to be popular abroad.

The latest important Filipino captured was pinched by the native police. Otis seems to be right about the war being over.

The fad for broken china seems to have become an international craze.

Only 10 per cent of the bills introduced at the last session of congress became laws. One per cent might have been enough.

Two Salem citizens have just returned from Philadelphia and pronounce the Pennsylvania town slow. Those Salem fellows are always discovering something.

Every town that Dewey visits that has a pond or a creek in its vicinity insists on the admiral going afloat. When he reaches Wellsville he will have to steam up Little Yellow creek.

Mahoning county Democrats declare "for the principles of true Democracy and pure Americanism." The man who guesses what that means can have their congressional nomination as a reward.

The appearance of the first street car in Mingo "caused some excitement," according to the Steubenville Gazette correspondent, but the people manfully resisted their first impulse of taking to the woods. Next week some of the Mingo people may be induced to board the car while it is hitched up.

TOBACCO FIENDS.

We have a communication, a very hot communication, from a well known citizen of East Liverpool, branding and berating and scorching tobacco chewers who stand at the street corners and in front of public places and expectorate all over the pavements, much to the disgust and annoyance of cleanly people in general and women pedestrians in particular. We do not publish the article in full on account of the very harsh epithets made use of therein.

"REMEMBER."

"Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy." This is the commandment of the Master. It means that which it says; nothing more, nothing less. Sunday excursions are a curse to any nation and to any commonwealth, no matter how carefully they are conducted, and no Christian man or woman can conscientiously ask God's blessing upon them or attend them or take any part in connection therewith. The excursion to this place yesterday was anything but a holy or Christian feature. It would be an insult to God Almighty to term it an excursion in favor of Christianity. It was an excursion in direct opposition to God's commandment: "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy."

SUNDAY DESECRATION.

There seems to be a determination on the part of wicked men in this city to desecrate the Sabbath day. Business places are run wide open, in defiance of the state law against Sunday desecration, and no effort is made by our city officials to bring the offenders to justice. The guilty ones would better be careful. They may pay the penalty for their bad conduct. State officials may step in upon them at any moment, and fines and imprisonment will surely follow. Attempting to hide under the plea of ignorance of the law will be of no avail. Local officials, now winking at your wickedness, will not dare come to your help, else their official heads may drop in the basket as lawbreakers. Patience has ceased to be a virtue, and lawbreakers and Sabbath desecrators must be taught a much needed lesson.

HOODLUMS.

They deserve no better name. We have reference to the crowd which made night hideous on Sunday, in the upper story of the Thompson block, Fifth avenue. The church people were wending their way home last night, about 10 o'clock, when pandemonium broke loose in the quarters designated, and the general impression was that a fight was going on in the building, as chairs were overturned, cat calls resounded on all sides, and finally the lights were turned out. On every hand arose the question: "Where are the police." Again the lights were turned on, and immediately afterward ringing cheers saluted the ears of the people on the pavements below and the pounding and cat calls were resumed. An indignant citizen sent a telephone message to city hall, but there was no one there. Then the fire department was called up and notified of the Sabbath desecration being carried on; a courteous fireman hunted up Chief Morley, and the chief answered that the matter should receive immediate attention. The conservative and church going portion of this city are determined that such features shall cease as controlled yesterday, and there will be no procrastination or trifling in the matter. Forbearance has ceased to be a virtue.

Elected Their First Set of Officers.

The bakers' union, No. 80, met Saturday night and perfected their organization and every shop in the city except one has signed the scale. The officers elected were:

Don't Want a Sewer Now.

Wellsville people decided last Saturday that they didn't want that storm water sewer at present. Of course a majority of the citizens favored the sewer, but there wasn't the necessary two-thirds. The total vote cast was 505 and stood 324 for the sewer and 181 against it.

Dell Roy Man Got It.

State Mine Inspector Biddison has announced that James P. Davis, of Dell Roy, Carroll Co., will be retained indefinitely as deputy inspector of this the Sixth district. Reese Davis, of East Palestine, has been the deputy, but a recent readjustment of the district places Carroll county in this subdivision, and the retention of the gentleman from Dell Roy cancels, for the present, at least, Mr. Davis' chance for reappointment.

A Lame Law.

Attorney General Sheets believes that the force of the parole law of the state is impaired by the fact that under it he thinks prisoners who have violated their word cannot be taken into custody until the board of managers of the penitentiary has annulled the paroles. If the violation was committed immediately after the monthly meeting of the board of managers, the plenty of time to make good his escape.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Institution of the New Lodge In This City Yesterday Attracted Many

VISITING KNIGHTS AND FRIENDS

Elaborate Exercises Connected With the Ceremony of Installation.

BANQUETED AT ROCK SPRING.

East Liverpool council No. 509, Knights of Columbus, was instituted in this city yesterday. The lodge starts with a membership of 53, but it is expected to reach 100 before next fall. Probably more than 300 out-of-town Knights were present and participated in the ceremonies.

Everything connected with the institution of the lodge went through without a hitch, and the day will be long remembered by the Knights and their friends. The ceremonies were in charge of William A. Maline, of Youngstown, O., who is district deputy supreme knight.

At 10 o'clock the candidates and visiting Knights assembled at the Carroll club rooms. They marched from there to St. Aloysius church, where special mass was held for the Knights of Columbus. The first and third degrees were conferred in N. B. of O. P. hall at 10 o'clock. After becoming thus far acquainted with the secrets of the order the visitors were entertained in an informal way by the Knights and their friends.

The banquet at Rock Springs park in the afternoon was an enjoyable event. Plates were set for 400 people, who did ample justice to the excellent menu. By the time the feast was over all were in an excellent humor and thoroughly prepared to enjoy the toasts which followed. Hon. Peter J. Collins, of Canton, responded to the toast, "Our Relation to the Republic," in a very able manner. "Do We Need the Knights of Columbus?" was answered strongly in the affirmative by Thomas J. Duffy, the new elected grand knight of the lodge. Rev. James H. Halligan responded in an able manner on the subject, "Unity." Dr. Charles A. Wingetter, of Wheeling, won the applause of the banqueters by his toast on "Knighthood." Addresses by Father Dacey, of Steubenville, and J. J. Coniff, esq., of Wheeling, were well received and were none the less able because they were impromptu. M. J. McGarry performed his duties as toastmaster with credit to himself and the new lodge. The banquet was closed in a happy way by the singing of the national hymn, "America."

Nowling's orchestra added much to the enjoyment of the banquet by the rendering of a specially prepared musical program. This feature was the subject of much favorable comment by the visitors.

The third degree was conferred at N. B. of O. P. hall at 7.30 in the evening.

The following officers were installed yesterday to serve for a term of one year: T. J. Duffy, grand knight; J. J. Weisend, deputy grand knight; Albert Grim, chancellor; P. J. McCune, financial secretary; Jerry Creden, recording secretary; D. T. McCarron, treasurer; Albert A. Taylor, lecturer; George DeTemple, advocate; Cline Calhoun, warden; John Ryan, inside guard; Thomas Woods, outside guard; Edward Grim, Thomas Plunkett, M. E. Miskall, James Flood and William J. Feist, trustees.

Wellsville Improvements. Wellsville's new viaduct in the East End, sanitary and storm sewer system and new brick pavements all over town, will make that place, according to the Union's belief, one of the best towns in Ohio.

BOTH JUMPED.

PLAYMATE WANTED TO SEE IF YOUNG CALL WOULD JUMP

If He Fired an "Unloaded" Revolver at Him—Bullet Hit Call in Leg.

Moses Call was hurt yesterday as a result of a curiosity of a playmate. Several boys were bathing in the river below the flint mill. A boy named Hughes had a revolver which was loaded, as he thought, with a blank cartridge. He wondered if Call would be scared if he fired at his legs. The question kept revolving in his mind. He finally decided to put the matter to a test. As the cartridge was blank no harm could possibly come from finding out. So when Call was not looking in his direction he shot at his legs to see if he would jump. He jumped. It is presumed that his jumping exceeded Hughes' fondest expectations. The jumping was accompanied by a series of howls, which had not entered into the program prepared by Hughes.

The cause of the demonstration was the fact that the revolver was loaded. The bullet struck Call in the calf of the leg. Dr. Norton was called. He extracted the bullet and the victim is now little the worse for his little scare.

WHO CLAIMS IT WAS PAID

The Missing Cashier Couldn't Find the Note When the Amount Was Turned Over.

THE RECEIVER FOUND IT LATER.

Lisbon, June 11.—(Special.)—L. C. Laylin, receiver of the First National bank, today began an action to obtain a judgment for $4,500 against Robert W. Tayler. On November 25, 1896, Tayler gave a note to N. B. Billingsley for the above amount and shortly afterwards Billingsley disposed of the note to the bank. The receiver says he found this note as part of the assets of the bank and is trying to collect on it. Tayler claims he paid the note, but that Cashier Child at the time said he could not find the note, and apparently failed to cancel it later.

PROBLEM FACES TAFT

Conditions Almost Stagger His Commission.

MANY CALLERS WITH PLANS.

The Utterances of the Chairman Indicated a Conciliatory Policy Toward the Natives—Army Officers Urged Larger Army to Suppress Rebellion.

MANILA, June 11.—Judge William H. Taft and his colleagues of the Philippine civil commission were beset during their first week in Manila by a multitude of callers of all nationalities, professions and interests, who presented a bewildering assortment of recommendations touching military and civil policies. The commissioners maintained the attitude of unprejudiced listeners.

They admitted that, while they anticipated an enormous task, the complexity and difficulty of the problems and conditions were well nigh staggering. They were determined, however, with the co-operation of the army, in pacifying as well as fighting, to make the Philippines a peaceful and honestly governed country before departing.

They found General MacArthur administering civil and military affairs in a way that was universally popular. The Filipino party, embracing prominent insurrectionists who accepted American rule through force of circumstances, has been making overtures for the discussion of a scheme of permanent government, practically reviving the old proposition of autonomy under an American protectorate.

There were, of course, some Filipinos who believed that Judge Taft would bring the millennium in his vest pocket, and these professed to be disappointed because sweeping changes were not made immediately. Judge Taft's utterances indicated a conciliatory policy toward the natives. He had conferred with the high army officers, some of whom strongly urged that a larger army was necessary to suppress the insurrection, believing that civil government would be impossible until the rampant rebellion in the southern districts of Luzon, in the extreme northern provinces of the island and in the Visayas, except Negros, was crushed.

One of the foremost questions is how and from what materials to organize a civil force with which gradually to supersede the army as a governing machine. Spain's auxiliary, the church, is necessarily barred from consideration. American experience with the natives discouraged the hope of honest government through them until a generation or more of training shall have eradicated the results of Spain's tutelage. A large proportion of the provincial officials already installed have proven treacherous, while the native police and officials here in Manila were living on a scale of luxury suspiciously disproportionate to their salaries. Charges against native judges of failing to account for thousands of dollars received in fines are under investigation.

General Otis' plan of municipal governments was being inaugurated in the principal towns of Central Luzon and in parts of the Visayas, but the Filipinos persisted in thinking that the question whether the United States would retain the Philippines was still open, and some local leaders asked that municipal elections be postponed until after the presidential election. Many people objected to taking the oath of allegiance to the United States government, which was the first qualification for voting for municipal candidates.

The commissioners also found that the future state of the church in the Philippine was a leading question in the minds of many, although most of those who had talked with Judge Taft and his colleagues drew the inference that the commissioners were opposed to the reinstatement of the friars. Archbishop Chappelle took a strong stand in supporting the request of the friars to be established in their old position.

As a result of last week's scouting more than 200 Filipinos were killed and 160 captured, while 140 rifles, with ammunition and stores, were secured.

The American loss was nine killed, including a captain and a lieutenant, two captains and 21 privates wounded and one captain taken prisoner by the Filipinos.

A REIGN OF TERROR

THE REBELS' SCHEME

Said to Plan to Repeat in Philippines the Devastation of Cuba—MacArthur's Hard Task.

[Correspondence.]

MANILA, June 11.—General MacArthur has to fight a secret organization which amounts to almost a government, which exercises power to some extent and enforces its decrees over all of Luzon and most of the other islands, which collects taxes here in Manila and even gives receipts for duties paid on the cargoes of native boats passing up the rivers in the suburbs. The control of this underground organization is reported to be in the hands of a junta whose headquarters are in Manila.

The policy of the insurgent machine is to repeat the Cuban revolution in the Philippines, to discourage conquest by so devastating the islands and keeping them in such a state of war that they will be useless to the conquerors. Nowhere outside of the garrisoned towns can Americans go except in large armed parties, unless the country for 20 miles south of Manila and ten miles north be excepted. The provinces directly south of Manila and those north as far as Dagupan are the quietest of the island, and there schools and local governments are in operation, and much money is being expended in building roads and other improvements.

The municipal governments prove useful under the strict supervision of the American officers and the towns are cleaner and better administered than many American villages, but, generally speaking, the native officials have no initiative and their efficiency, without the personal vigilance of the American officers, would be doubtful.

The theory that the Filipinos outside of the Tagalog provinces were friendly to American rule has been deeply shaken by recent events. All of the northeastern coast beyond Dagupan is in a state of war, and there are frequent fights with heavy losses to the Filipinos.

All of the southern provinces inhabited by the Visayans are also turbulent, and in the Camarines, Nueva Carceres and Alba provinces they control only the territory within the picket lines of the garrisons in the coast towns, while these garrisons are subject to frequent attacks from large insurgent forces. With the exception of Negros, which, being the wealthiest island of the Philippines, is the most friendly to American rule, the Visayan islands show practically similar conditions.

How long the present conditions may continue is a discouraging question. Most of the officers think the thorough conquest of the islands along present lines must be a slow work of years unless the government should adopt methods resembling those by which England crushed the Indian mutiny. Neither alternative pleases them.

IN MCKINLEY'S STATE.

Democrats Talk of Contesting Every County.

HEADQUARTERS AT COLUMBUS.

Move on Foot to Have the National Headquarters There—Ohio Convention Meets Tomorrow and Wednesday—Some of Candidates For Delegate.

COLUMBUS, O., June 11.—The Democratic state convention meets here tomorrow and Wednesday to select delegates at-large and alternates to the Kansas City convention and to nominate candidates for electors-at-large, secretary of state, judge of the supreme court, dairy and food commissioner, commissioner of schools and members of the board of public works. There is the usual list of contestants for the state offices and the usual diversity of opinion as to the platform.

John McLean, proprietor of the Cincinnati Enquirer, headed the Democratic ticket for governor last year and probably would be selected as the head of the Ohio delegation to Kansas City this year, but he announced that other engagements will prevent him from attending the Kansas City convention. Mr. McLean is expected to sail, with his family, for Europe next Saturday, to be out of the country for an indefinite period. There will be no effort to advance the Dewey candidacy for the presidency as some had expected would be the case here this week. It is conceded that the convention will unanimously endorse Bryan for president.

Among the most prominent names mentioned for delegates-at-large were Colonel James Kilbourne, of Columbus, the leading candidate against McLean for the nomination for governor last year; William S. Thomas, of Springfield, chairman of the committee; John C. Welty, of Canton; Charles N. Haskell, of Ottawa; George W. Hull, of Toledo; Abe Patrick, of Tuscarawas; Horace L. Chapman, of Jackson; John J. Lentz, of Columbus; Frank M. Merriott, of Delaware, and Herman Groesbeck, of Cincinnati.

There was a movement here to have the national Democratic headquarters located in Columbus during this campaign. It was claimed that the Democratic state committee of Kentucky had endorsed Columbus. The Democratic state convention of West Virginia last Thursday adopted a strong resolution endorsing Columbus and similar movements are on foot in other states. It is claimed that the Democrats should carry the war into McKinley's state and contest every county in Ohio. It was also argued that the border states of Indiana, Kentucky and West Virginia are the doubtful ones that might decide the result and that they were easily reached from Columbus.

REPUBLICANS

IN PHILADELPHIA

Some of the Prominent Leaders Already There—Hanna and Dick Were Expected Today.

PHILADELPHIA, June 11.—The vanguard of the national Republican convention crowd is already here. Senator Scott, of West Virginia; National Committeeman Henry C. Payne, of Wisconsin; Committeeman Joseph H. Manley, of Maine; Ambassador to Mexico Powell Clayton, who represents Arkansas on the national committee; Judge W. B. Heyburn, of Idaho, and J. M. Ashton, one of the delegates at-large from Washington, arrived the past few days. National Committeeman Richard C. Kerens, of Missouri, who had been here for several days, left for St. Louis to attend the wedding of his son, and will return with the Missouri delegation, probably on Saturday. Ambassador Clayton, it was expected, will go to Washington today and will return in time to attend the national committee meeting on Wednesday.

National Chairman Hanna and Secretary Dick are expected today. The convention hall is all ready. The seating capacity was estimated to be close to 16,000.

The national committee will hold its first session in this city Wednesday, when every member is expected to be present with the exception of General James H. Wilson, of Delaware, who is in Cuba. At this meeting the committee will go over the work already done in preparation for the convention and will smooth out the little details. The organization of the convention will, in all likelihood, be taken up and finally passed upon. The greatest task assigned to the national committee will be the matter of contests.

The committee is expected to take such action as will make the work of the credentials committee easier. With the exception of the Eleventh Pennsylvania congressional district every delegate to the convention in the United States has been elected. The Eleventh Pennsylvania will elect its two delegates at Scranton today. As far as known here notice of contests have been given as follows:

Alabama, two entire delegations.
Delaware, two entire delegations.
Georgia, First and Eighth districts.
Louisiana, Second and Fifth districts.
Pennsylvania, Nineteenth district.
Texas, delegates-at-large and First, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh and Ninth districts.
Tennessee, delegates-at-large.

AT GRAVE OF MOODY.

Services Held on Round Top—Young Moody Elected to the School Faculty.

EAST NORTHFIELD, Mass., June 11.—The annual meeting of the board of trustees of the Northfield seminary was held here. The old board was re-elected, except that Mrs. J. H. Harris, of New London, wife of the late professor of the board, wished her name dropped. The two new members elected to the board were Paul Dwight Moody, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of his father, Dwight L. Moody, and George E. Keith, of Brockton, Mass.

By the appointment of Mr. Moody's son to this position, Mr. Moody's last request from his deathbed is fulfilled.

The treasurer's report was very encouraging.

The trustees resolved that the work should go on without any diminution.

This body has already subscribed $80,000 toward the endowment fund with several yet to hear from. The current expenses of the year have been practically met. However the outstanding debts at present amount to about $10,000.

The first public meeting on Round Top since the burial of Mr. Moody occurred Sunday afternoon, as used to occur.

At the close of the service the entire company surrounded the grave of Mr. Moody and sang some of his favorite hymns.

The service was most impressive.

THE POPE PARTICIPATED.

Took Part in Ceremony of Veneration of Two Italian Saints—Appeared in Food Health.

ROME, June 11.—The pope went to St. Peter's cathedral, Sunday, to participate in the ceremony of veneration in the case of two Italian saints recently canonized. Thirty thousand people were present.

He was borne on the Sedia Gestoria, surrounded by several cardinals and the papal court. He seemed in good health, and when giving the blessing to the pilgrims rose from his seat briskly, as if he wished to reassure the congregation regarding his condition.

BECAME AN EPISCOPAL MINISTER.

One of New York's Richest Young Men Ordained.

NEW YORK, June 11.—Anson Phelps Stokes, Jr., third son of Anson Phelps Stokes and one of New York's richest young men, was ordained an Episcopal deacon by Bishop Henry C. Potter at the cathedral of St. John the Devine. Mr. Stokes had long intended to enter the ministry. In 1897 he entered the Episcopal Theological seminary at Cambridge, Mass., where he has just finished his theological course. Mr. Stokes, since November, 1899, has been secretary of the Yale corporation and will continue his duties with the university.

FLUID IN HIS SKULL.

Boy Died From Enlargement and a Remarkable Condition Was Discovered.

TOLEDO, O., June 11.—James McNeely, a 13-year-old boy of Avondale, died after suffering from enlargement of the skull, his head measuring 30½ inches in circumference.

When the skull was opened at the autopsy the physicians were surprised to find that it enclosed five and one-half quarts of fluid as clear as crystal. The brain, instead of being solid, was hollow, and in the interior was this fluid. The skull was a mere shell of scarcely a sixteenth of an inch.

Young McNeely was unusually bright. In fact, he was farther advanced in this respect than most boys of his age.

Rev. Father Smyth Dead.

CHICAGO, June 11.—Rev. J. M. Smyth died at Mercy hospital, after a protracted illness. Father Smyth was the first pastor of the well known Catholic colony in Greeley county, Neb., and for many years was quite active in the work of colonization under the direction of the late Bishop O'Connor, of Omaha.

Alleged Murderer Suicided.

CHESTER, Pa., June 11.—James Pierce, who, with his brother, "Pinny" Pierce, was charged with the murder of George B. Eyre, committed suicide at the county jail at Media. The trial of the brothers was to have commenced today. The district attorney announced a postponement of the trial of Pinny Pierce. The latter was some time ago released on bail, principally on account of his weak physical condition, and the evidence against him was not considered strong. James Pierce left a letter to his mother, father and sister, in which he protested his innocence.

TO REPAIR RAILWAY.

AMERICANS WERE AMONG THEM.

McDonald Scored Chinese Government. Missionaries Murdered—Number of Native Christians Butchered—Nashville and Monocacy to Reinforce U. S. Fleet.

TIENTSIN, June 13.—The special train that went to examine the line and reconnoiter returned here. The railway was found clear two miles beyond Yang Tsin. The engineers, with the guards, walked about a mile and a half further. They found the ties and two bridges burned and the railway torn up. They saw a few hundred persons, apparently villagers, gathered ahead of them.

The first repair train, with Admiral Seymour and his staff, 650 British, Captain McCalla's 100 Americans, 40 Italians and 25 Austrians, left here. A Hotchkiss and other guns were mounted on a car in front of the engine. The rest of the guns were mounted in the center of the train. A second train left at 11 with 600 British, Japanese, Russian and French troops. Repairing material and new rails were taken along.

There were 31 foreign war vessels at Taku.

A message from Pekin to the admirals asserts that the situation is growing more dangerous for foreigners. All those at Pekin have taken refuge in Legation street. The civilian males are under arms to fight with the regulars if necessary. The approaches to Legation street are surrounded by howling mobs of undisciplined soldiery, with cannon and bayonets. The International guard were holding off the mob, which screamed insults and threats.

This was the situation Saturday when the couriers got through with the latest dispatches. The empress dowager was amusing herself at the palace with theatricals.

It is reported that government arms are being dealt out to the Boxers. The troops of Yung Fuh Seang are said to be assisting to kill native Christians, after malignant tortures.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Admiral Kempff's force will be increased soon by the arrival of the Monocacy and the Nashville. With the additional marines these vessels accommodate the available force of men subject to Minister Conger's needs or demands will be considerably increased.

LONDON, June 11.—Sir Claude MacDonald, British minister in Pekin, sent a telegram to Shanghai on June 7, saying in part:

"The movement against the foreigners, which has been allowed to grow to such an extent, has resulted in the burning of railway stations and in the interruption of railway communication for five days. Two British missionaries and several foreign missionaries have been murdered in the district near Pekin. In the country round, numbers of converts have been murdered and chapels have been pillaged and destroyed, while in the capital itself the British missionaries have been obliged to leave their houses and to take refuge at the legation, which is defended by 75 marines.

"The Chinese government is effected by these event so far as to send high officials to parley with the Boxers, but it does not show any intention of summarily suppressing them. Probably it still has power to do so, but the throne is still strongly influenced by sympathy with the movement, and the spirit of the troops is doubtful. All is well up to the present."

LONDON, June 11.—A special dispatch from St. Petersburg, dated Saturday, June 9, says:

"I have learned from an absolutely reliable source that minute dispatches have been sent to the commanders of the Russian troops in Manchuria, directing them to prepare three regiments of Cossacks on the Chinese frontier, to be in readiness to enter on the day orders are received."

LONDON, June 11.—The Pekin correspondent of The Times, telegraphing Sunday, said in part:

"The American mission buildings at Tung Chau, 12 miles from Pekin, which were abandoned by the missionaries, have been looted and burned by the Chinese soldiery who were sent to protect them.

"Within three days 75 native Christians, well known men who had been trained for years by American missionaries, have been massacred near Tung Chau. Many of them were burned alive.

"The intimidation of Christians continues within Pekin itself. Most of the mission compounds are closed, and the missionaries are being collected under the protection of the legation guards."

TWO KILLED IN RIOTS.

Two Others May Die From Wounds at St. Louis—Another Man May Lose His Hand.

ST. LOUIS, June 11.—Four men in a party of 100 or more striking employees of the Transit company who were returning from a labor parade in East St. Louis, were shot by members of the sheriff's posse, in front of the temporary barracks on Washington avenue, between Broadway and Sixth street. One is dead, two others, wounded in the head and abdomen, it was thought would die, and the fourth it was thought would lose a hand. About in front of the barracks occupied by the posse committed the paraders attempted to assault the crew of a passing street car.

A brick was thrown and several shots were fired by the street car men, when members of the posse appeared on the street with their shotguns and attempted to rescue the street car men. In the melee it was estimated about ten shots were fired by the posse men who surrounded the mob, and there were four casualties as far as now known. Twenty-one prisoners were captured by the posse and taken into the barracks. One other shooting by a deputy sheriff was reported at the sheds of the Bellefontaine line. Fred Boehm, 65 years old, was killed.

DR. PAUL GIBIER DEAD.

He Died From the Effects of Injuries Received in a Runaway Accident.

TUXEDO PARK, N. Y., June 11.—Dr. Paul Gibier, head of a sanitarium at Suffern and of the Pasteur institute of New York city, died from the effects of injuries received in a runaway Mrs. Horen, his motor car law, was injured, but not badly.

They started for a drive. They had not gone far from the house when the horse took fright at fireworks, which some boys were exploding in the road. The animal dashed down the road and a wheel of the vehicle caught in a tree. Dr. Gibier and Mrs. Horen were thrown to the ground. Dr. Gibier's head struck on a stone and he was rendered unconscious instantly.

The horse, with his harness trail after him, ran back home. Mrs. Gibier immediately sent workmen out to find the doctor and Mrs. Horen. They were carried home and physicians summoned. In spite of all efforts to revive Dr. Gibier, he died about midnight without regaining consciousness. Aside from the shock and a few bruises Mrs. Horen was not badly hurt.

The doctor was 49 years old. Mrs. Horen is about 72.

The Pittsburgh players present were Ely, O'Brien and Zimmer.

FIGURED BY NATURE

PORTRAITS IN THE WALL OF THE FAMOUS MARBLE ROOM.

A Slab of Stone in the Treasury Department That Shows a Perfect Profile of Queen Victoria and Other Interesting Pictures.

The often repeated statement that Uncle Sam is without sentiment is illustrated in a measure in the treasury department. The famous marble room, which cost the government $300,000, although still a place of beauty, is no longer an ornamental chamber only. The room around which tradition has woven many a curious tale, the room in which General Grant received the guests who attended his first inaugural ball, is now used as a cash room.

Long years ago, when the architect who planned the interior of the room saw his dream realized, when the painters and decorators had completed their labors and visitors were allowed to gaze upon its magnificence, it was declared to be the finest room in the country. Men and women of national and international fame have danced upon the marble floors where today stand prosaic counters and desks. The pretty gallery in which sat the famously beautiful women of those days, where society gossiped and belles and beaux carried on flirtations, is still retained. But it is empty, and no one, unless it be the spirits of those who once adorned the room, looks down upon the small army of employees who handle $262,000,000 each year before it is distributed throughout the United States.

This famous room of the treasury department has been used for this purpose for a number of years. The growing demands of the department made this necessary, but the place has not lost reputation even if it has become one of the government's workshops. The marble room of the treasury department is known far and wide and is a feature of interest to visitors on a tour of inspection of the building. The interior is constructed of marble brought from sunny Italy, from France and from Vermont.

F. E. Spinner was treasurer when the room was built. W. H. West was chief clerk, and A. B. Mullett was the supervising architect. Hugh McCulloch was secretary of the treasury, and his assistants were W. E. Chandler and J. F. Hartly. This information is proclaimed by two marble slabs placed above the doors. All the marble is without doubt the most magnificent that could be obtained. One of the squares, however, is particularly remarkable. It is a beautiful specimen of black Vermont marble. A crack runs through the middle of this square, the most remarkable one in the whole room. On it, as though drawn by an artist, is a picture of Queen Victoria, a full life sized figure of an old Quakeress and the head and shoulders of a French soldier, with his little round cap set jauntily on the side of his head, fastened with a cord that runs down the side of the face and under the chin.

The discovery of the faces and figures on the marble was made by Messenger W. R. Elliott. One day, while seated in front of the square, he was startled by the lines of alternate black and white forming the figure of the old Quakeress. A full side view of the old woman is shown. The traditional poke bonnet is pictured, a shawl covers the slightly drooped shoulders, and the hands are folded complacently in front of the body. It needs no steady gaze to bring out the picture. It is as perfect as though drawn by a master hand.

The face of Queen Victoria is also remarkably true to life. It requires no effort of imagination to draw out the contour of her face. Only the profile and a small portion of the shoulders are displayed. The face of Queen Victoria on the marble has given the officials no end of amusement. Several years ago, while a number of young English women who had visited this country for the purpose of attending a Christian Endeavor convention were being taken through the treasury department, they were shown the face of their beloved queen. They were greatly amazed at the likeness, and many exclamations of love and veneration were expressed. While admiring the queer designing of nature one of the young women declared that the English government should purchase the marble square.

of the square. The figure is nair ure size and is in profile, like the other two. The shoulders are thrown back just as they are drawn by famous French military artists. Nothing could be more truly drawn than the round cap which is set half over the left ear. There are other faces and figures to be found on the square. Dogs, birds and countless grotesque figures can easily be traced by following the lines.—Washington Post.

He Couldn't Solve It.

As a train was approaching a town on the Great Northern railway in Ireland an intelligent looking young Irishman observed a lady standing up searching her pocket. She commenced to weep. "Have you been robbed?" he asked.

"Oh, no," she replied; "I've lost my ticket, and they will accuse me of fraud."

Seeing her distressed state of mind, he said:

"Oh, don't mind. Here, take my ticket, and I will give the guard a problem," while their fellow passengers awaited the scene at the station with interest.

When the train stopped, the guard collected all the tickets but one. "Where is your ticket?" he asked the young man.

"You have got my ticket," he replied.

"No, I have not got it. I'll call the station master and see about it."

"Where is your ticket?" asked the station master when he appeared.

"He has my ticket. See if he has a ticket in his hand with a small piece off the corner."

"Yes, you have, Dave. There it is."

"Well, see will that fit it?" said Pat, handing him the small piece, and it did. A look of surprise crept over the guard's face as he left the carriage, while Pat caused much amusement by exclaiming, "Begorra, I knew he could not solve it!"—London Tit-Bits.

Two of Nast's Faces.

William M. Tweed was a portly man of medium size, with a long, pendulous nose, little porcine eyes, fat, drooping cheeks and a straight, firm mouth that was decidedly his best feature. The outlines of his face were those of a Bartlett pear, little end upward, and I never saw craft so palpably written upon a human countenance. Nast used to be fond of drawing Tweed's face, by the way, as a sack of money. The general contour of his head lent itself to the outlines of the sack, and he used $ marks for the nose and eyes. Strange to say, it was a capital portrait.

Another of Nast's trick pictures was one of Roscoe Conkling. He would draw a large letter V, with a smaller v inside it and surmount the pair with an interrogation mark upside down. The big V represented Conkling's pointed beard, the smaller one his sharp nose and the interrogation point the Hyperion curl which he always allowed to fall negligently upon his forehead. That caricature made the haughty senator wild and exasperated him more than any bit of fun that was ever poked in his direction.—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

A Story of Amos Cummings.

One summer a number of years ago Amos Cummings passed two weeks on a pilot boat and took Ernest Jarrold, the author of "Mickey Finn Idylls," with him for company. One day a great storm arose, and the pilot boat was tossed about on the waves like a chip. Every minute a wave would dash over the deck and threaten to carry everything away and swamp the boat. Cummings and Jarrold were in the little cabin, the former lying in a bunk intently reading a book on the French revolution. Jarrold poked his head out to look at the storm, when a mountain of sea water fell with a boom on the deck and filled his eyes with spray. The boat gave a fearful lurch and careened until it seemed that she must turn completely over.

"This is awful, Amos," said Jarrold. "I'm going to put on a life preserver, for I don't think the boat can stand it many minutes longer."

"Oh, keep quiet, and let me read Mickey," said Cummings, never lifting his eyes from the page. "The men on this boat draw a regular salary to keep her afloat."—Saturday Evening Post.

A Labored Effort.

"What do you think of my play?" asked the author.

"Play!" grunted the leading man. "Play nothing! It's hard work."—Philadelphia North American.

FIRST M. E. CHURCH.

Children's Day Was Unusually Interesting and a Great Audience Was Present.

Everything passed off pleasantly and the occasion will long be remembered with pleasure. The decorations were in extremely good taste. The songs and recitations were all that could be desired. One little tot, a mere baby, rendered a Sabbath school selection, accompanied by the organ, and carried the tune to perfection, apparently unembarrassed by the presence of the great crowd. The Phillis quartet gave a selection in splendid voice and time. The quartet was booked for several selections, but time forbade the rendering of them and they were postponed until the evening service.

The ordinance of baptism was gone through with, and quite a number of infants were baptized. One of the wee ones cried vociferously when the water reached its head; a second little one attempted to dodge the loving hand of the pastor, and a third baby made heroic and determined effort to lift the hand of the minister, although the child did not appear to be frightened in the least. The little one's battle caused audible smites all over the church, from old and young, and we miss our guess if the officiating minister did not have hard work to control himself and refrain from smiling. A fourth infant seemed to like the service, and cooed and laughed in Dr. Crawford's face. Several names were added to the church record, by letter and upon probation. The membership of this church is growing rapidly and much good is evidently being accomplished.

OPEN AIR SERVICE ON FOUNDATIONS

Novel Exercises Held at the St. Stephen's Protestant Episcopal Church

PRIOR TO CORNER STONE LAYIN

Which Will Be Performed at 7 O'clock This Evening by Bishop Leonard.

MEETING OF THE MEN'S CLUB.

The session of the Men's Social club of St. Stephen's Episcopal church, held at the parish building Saturday night, was largely attended. This event marked the beginning of the services connected with the laying of the corner stone of the new church. The evening was spent very enjoyably by the members and their guests, numbering in all about 100. A program consisting of songs, recitations and addresses was rendered. The principal addresses of the evening were by Dr. F. E. J. Lloyd and Rev. Edwin Weary. Light refreshments were served, bringing to a close the last of the meetings of the club until September.

The services Sunday morning were begun by the holy communion, followed by a children's service at 9:30. The morning service at 10 o'clock was choral. The sermon at this service was very able and eloquent, Dr. Lloyd taking as his subject "Trinity."

The principal service of the day was that held on the foundation of the church at 7 o'clock in the evening. Temporary seats had been placed on the foundations and these were taxed to their utmost by the large crowd which was in attendance. The music furnished by the vested choir was of a high order and greatly appreciated by the congregation. Short but interesting addresses were listened to, delivered by Rev. Dr. Lloyd and Rev. Weary. The contents of the box to be placed in the corner stone were read to the congregation by the rector, Rev. Weary, and the box was sealed this morning.

Rev. Weary also stated that the 17 windows of the church will represent the 17 principal events of the life of Christ, giving a concise history of our Lord's life from His birth to ascension. The singing at this service was fine and hearty, the congregation enjoying the open air worship.

Bishop W. A. Leonard arrived on the noon train, together with other interested members of the church, and will have charge of the ceremonies of the laying of the corner stone, which will take place at 7 o'clock this evening. An informal reception will be held in the parish building after the evening's ceremonies. The music will be by the vested choir and by Prof. Manley's band.

The trowel of solid silver which will be presented to Bishop Leonard will bear the following inscription: "Presented to the Rt. Rev. W. A. Leonard, D. D., bishop of Ohio, by the congregation of St. Stephen's church in memory of the laying of the corner stone of the new Episcopal church, East Liverpool, June 11, 1900."

The Chicago Temple.

The News Review has received from the hand of Mrs. Carse, president of the board of trustees of the W. C. T.

U. Temple, Chicago, who recently visited this city, a beautiful picture of the handsome building. All the ladies now need to raise of the $300,000 they started out to collect is $60,000. The rentals from the building now approach nearer $200,000 than $100,000 annually. This noble band of women will surely win, as they deserve to.

SHE BRANDED HIM.

She Termed Him Graveyard Robber and Thief and Scared Him Badly.

It was in the old graveyard. The lady is well known in this city. She was on a visit to the grave of a loved one, at an early hour in the morning, when she discovered a portly, well dressed man, shears in hand, robbing the graves of beautiful flowers. She indignantly accosted the thief and ghoul with:

"You're a fine specimen of humanity? It's bad enough to have the little boys steal flowers from the graves; but it's indescribably mean to see a man like you engaged in such work."

The man attempted to answer the angry lady, telling her that men and women had been there all the morning cutting flowers, and that he thought he had as good a right to them as anybody else; but she answered him with:

"Oh, yes; because there are other miserable thieves in town, you must become a thief also. I'm ashamed of you, and you ought to be ashamed of yourself."

He further attempted defense, driven to bay, asserting that he had not taken any flowers to which she had any just claim, and then she warmed him with:

"You falsify, sir; you have robbed me and mine; you hold flowers in your hand which came from my dear one's grave; those flowers grow on no other plot in this burial ground save mine, and I'm going to follow you up and have you arrested."

And then he gave up the battle and sneaked away, followed by the now thoroughly incensed lady, who intended to make her threat good. The flower purloiner and grave robber was too clever for her, however, and as he turned down an alleyway a few yards in advance of her, he darted into some place of security and could not be unearthed.

It is safe to say that he will not attempt to secure flowers from the old graveyard in the future.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN.

The Children's Day Exercises Were Largely Attended Yesterday Morning.

Children's day services were held at the First Presbyterian church yesterday morning and were largely attended. The auditorium of the church was appropriately decorated with flowers and looked very pretty, two large flags gracing the rear of the pulpit. The services were conducted under the direction of Prof. R. E. Rayman, and consisted of music, songs and recitations by the children, who had been well drilled and showed careful training. Short addresses were made by Prof. Rayman and Rev. S. C. George.

Cemeteryless.

Irondale has no cemetery, and those in the vicinity are all full. The township trustees are to be petitioned to purchase a site for a new cemetery.

Attorney Speaker.

The condition of Attorney C. S. Speaker, who has been ill for some days, is much improved, although he is still confined to his bed.

The ball game Saturday between the Dresden and Standard clubs was not a brilliant one and was replete with lots of hard hitting and yellow fielding.

The Dresdens won the game by a score of 19 to 14, but they failed to get as many hits off Strauss as the Standards did off Barker.

Fred Howard, who was playing left field for the Standards, was hit on the back of the head by a pitched ball in the eighth inning and for several minutes was unconscious. He wore a stiff hat and this undoubtedly broke the force of the ball.

The Standards were weakened by the absence of the two Godwins, as Carey was almost a dead loss at third and Dailey at short was not much better. The Dresdens didn't have McCarron and they felt his loss considerably.

The game was a scrappy one throughout and more kicks were registered than in any previous contest. When a ball was hit safe to the outfield Hancock would play close to first to prevent a runner from cutting the base. As a result he was knocked down twice.

The batting honors of the game belong to Carey and Clarke, who each made four hits.

There were no startling or phenomenal plays in the game, although the Standards struck a batting streak in the seventh and made six hits before the side was retired, two of them doubles. Dresdens had their streak in the eighth, when they made five hits. In the eighth Barker succeeded in striking out three men, but two of them scored, the catcher dropping the third strike.

Notes.

Strauss pitched a good game, and with the proper support would have won.

Hancock should play a little farther away from first and give the runner a chance.

McGuire broke the spell and made his first hit of the season.

Carey's second hit would have been good for a home run if he hadn't cut first and had to go back.

The Dresdens went to second place. They are a hard hitting team and the best pitcher in the league will have his troubles when he faces them.

Carey easily leads the league in batting, with an average of .666, Godwin is second with .583.

The Murphy-Thompson team will cross bats with K., T. & K. tomorrow. Clark is now third in the hitters of the league with an average of .570.

A DISASTROUS RIDE.

Olan Dawson and His Sisters Went Buggy Riding to the Country Yesterday.

Olan Dawson and his sisters, Misses Cora and Moredo, started for the country yesterday afternoon to make a visit with some relatives. They had gone but a short distance from the city when Olan struck the horse a gentle tap with the whip. It kicked, and in so doing got one leg over the shaft. It hobbled along on three legs for a short distance and then fell over in a ditch, taking the buggy and occupants with it. They were thrown out, but none of them injured. Olan sat on the horse's head until a farmer arrived and helped him out of the difficulty.

DIRECTORS HERE.

McBride and Hoopes Arrived in the City This Morning and Are Looking After Cases.

Infirmary Directors McBride and Hoopes were in the city today looking after four cases that they have on their hands in this city. They have had three of the cases for some time, but the other one is a new one and the person is ill with an attack of typhoid fever. The party came here from Summit county and the infirmary directors of that county will have to stand the expenses.

TRUSTEES DON'T FAVOR THE PLAN

Of Having No Township Doctor and Tell Some of Their Experiences.

A PHYSICIAN CHARGED $25

For Tending a Patient One Day While Another One Asked $30.

FOR TAKING CARE OF A CASE.

The township trustees have not yet selected a physician to fill the office of township doctor, but will probably do so this week.

Trustee Albright in speaking of the matter stated last night that some of the physicians of the city did not desire to have them appoint a township physician, but wanted them to let each physician take care of the business he got and the trustees could pay him. The trustee said they did not favor the plan and gave some of their experience along the line. In speaking of the matter the trustee said that sometime ago one of the physicians of the city had charge of a township case for one day and when he presented his bill it stated that he had made 12 visits and his claim was $25. The trustees refused to pay it and offered him $5, which he refused, and threatened to sue them. They told him to go ahead and sue and waited several weeks for him to do so, but one morning he sent to their office and said he would accept the $5.

Another case was a prison case and when the trustees sent the township physician to look after it he found a physician in charge. The physician said he would keep the case, but he did so without the consent of the trustees, who were surprised a short time later to receive a bill from him for $30. The trustees didn't pay him one cent, although they would not have objected to giving him at least $10.

The trustees say that it would cost them more for medicine under the plan the physicians like than it costs them for a physician and medicine now.

NO BUSINESS.

The Police Did Not Make an Arrest Saturday Night or Sunday. One Patrol Run.

Mayor Davidson had a clean docket this morning, as there was not an arrest or complaint Saturday night or Sunday.

The patrol was called to the West End Saturday night to gather in a sleeper, but the sleeper had flown when the patrol arrived and all chance of an arrest was gone.

GOOD SHOWING.

School Enumeration Will Show an Increase of at Least 200 Over Last Year.

The report of School Enumerator John C. Wallace will be presented to the board of education at the meeting tonight. The enumerator will not make public his work until the board meets, but it is known that the enumeration will show a gain of at least 200 over last year.

The evening was spent very enjoyably by the members and their guests, numbering in all about 100. A program consisting of songs, recitations and addresses was rendered. The principal addresses of the evening were by Dr. F. E. J. Lloyd and Rev. Edwin Weary. Light refreshments were served, bringing to a close the last of the meetings of the club until September.

The services Sunday morning were begun by the holy communion, followed by a children's service at 9:30. The morning service at 10 o'clock was choral. The sermon at this service was very able and eloquent, Dr. Lloyd taking as his subject "Trinity."

The principal service of the day was that held on the foundation of the church at 7 o'clock in the evening. Temporary seats had been placed on the foundations and these were taxed to their utmost by the large crowd which was in attendance. The music furnished by the vested choir was of a high order and greatly appreciated by the congregation. Short but interesting addresses were listened to, delivered by Rev. Dr. Lloyd and Rev. Weary. The contents of the box to be placed in the corner stone were read to the congregation by the rector, Rev. Weary, and the box was sealed this morning.

Rev. Weary also stated that the 17 windows of the church will represent the 17 principal events of the life of Christ, giving a concise history of our Lord's life from His birth to ascension. The singing at this service was fine and hearty, the congregation enjoying the open air worship.

Bishop W. A. Leonard arrived on the noon train, together with other interested members of the church, and will have charge of the ceremonies of the laying of the corner stone, which will take place at 7 o'clock this evening. An informal reception will be held in the parish building after the evening's ceremonies. The music will be by the vested choir and by Prof. Manley's band.

The trowel of solid silver which will be presented to Bishop Leonard will bear the following inscription: "Presented to the Rt. Rev. W. A. Leonard, D. D., bishop of Ohio, by the congregation of St. Stephen's church in memory of the laying of the corner stone of the new Episcopal church, East Liverpool, June 11, 1900."

The Chicago Temple.

The News Review has received from the hand of Mrs. Carse, president of the board of trustees of the W. C. T.

U. Temple, Chicago, who recently visited this city, a beautiful picture of the handsome building. All the ladies now need to raise of the $300,000 they started out to collect is $60,000. The rentals from the building now approach nearer $200,000 than $100,000 annually. This noble band of women will surely win, as they deserve to.

SHE BRANDED HIM.

She Termed Him Graveyard Robber and Thief and Scared Him Badly.

It was in the old graveyard. The lady is well known in this city. She was on a visit to the grave of a loved one, at an early hour in the morning, when she discovered a portly, well dressed man, shears in hand, robbing the graves of beautiful flowers. She indignantly accosted the thief and ghoul with:

"You're a fine specimen of humanity? It's bad enough to have the little boys steal flowers from the graves; but it's indescribably mean to see a man like you engaged in such work." The man attempted to answer the angry lady, telling her that men and women had been there all the morning cutting flowers, and that he thought he had as good a right to them as anybody else; but she answered him with:

"Oh, yes; because there are other miserable thieves in town, you must become a thief also. I'm ashamed of you, and you ought to be ashamed of yourself."

He further attempted defense, driven to bay, asserting that he had not taken any flowers to which she had any just claim, and then she warned him with:

"You falsify, sir; you have robbed me and mine; you hold flowers in your hand which came from my dear one's grave; those flowers grow on no other plot in this burial ground save mine, and I'm going to follow you up and have you arrested."

And then he gave up the battle and sneaked away, followed by the now thoroughly incensed lady, who intended to make her threat good. The flower purloiner and grave robber was too clever for her, however, and as he turned down an alleyway a few yards in advance of her, he darted into some place of security and could not be unearthed.

It is safe to say that he will not attempt to secure flowers from the old graveyard in the future.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN.

The Children's Day Exercises Were Largely Attended Yesterday Morning.

Children's day services were held at the First Presbyterian church yesterday morning and were largely attended. The auditorium of the church was appropriately decorated with flowers and looked very pretty, two large flags gracing the rear of the pulpit. The services were conducted under the direction of Prof. R. E. Rayman, and consisted of music, songs and recitations by the children, who had been well drilled and showed careful training. Short addresses were made by Prof. Rayman and Rev. S. C. George.

Cemeteryless.

Irondale has no cemetery, and those in the vicinity are all full. The township trustees are to be petitioned to purchase a site for a new cemetery.

The condition of Attorney C. S. Speaker, who has been ill for some days, is much improved, although he is still confined to his bed.

The ball game Saturday between the Dresden and Standard clubs was not a brilliant one and was replete with lots of hard hitting and yellow fielding.

The Dresdens won the game by a score of 19 to 14, but they failed to get as many hits off Strauss as the Standards did off Barker.

Fred Howard, who was playing left field for the Standards, was hit on the back of the head by a pitched ball in the eighth inning and for several minutes was unconscious. He wore a stiff hat and this undoubtedly broke the force of the ball.

The Standards were weakened by the absence of the two Godwins, as Carey was almost a dead loss at third and Dailey at short was not much better. The Dresdens didn't have McCarron and they felt his loss considerably.

The game was a scrappy one throughout and more kicks were registered than in any previous contest. When a ball was hit safe to the outfield Hancock would play close to first to prevent a runner from cutting the base. As a result he was knocked down twice.

The batting honors of the game belong to Carey and Clarke, who each made four hits.

There were no startling or phenomenal plays in the game, although the Standards struck a batting streak in the seventh and made six hits before the side was retired, two of them doubles. Dresdens had their streak in the eighth, when they made five hits. In the eighth Barker succeeded in striking out three men, but two of them scored, the catcher dropping the third strike.

Notes.

Strauss pitched a good game, and with the proper support would have won.

Hancock should play a little farther away from first and give the runner a chance.

McGuire broke the spell and made his first hit of the season.

Carey's second hit would have been good for a home run if he hadn't cut first and had to go back.

The Dresdens went to second place. They are a hard hitting team and the best pitcher in the league will have his troubles when he faces them.

Carey easily leads the league in batting, with an average of .666, Godwin is second with .583.

The Murphy-Thompson team will cross bats with K., T. & K. tomorrow. Clark is now third in the hitters of the league with an average of .570.

A DISASTROUS RIDE.

Olan Dawson and His Sisters Went Buggy Riding to the Country Yesterday.

Olan Dawson and his sisters, Misses Cora and Moredo, started for the country yesterday afternoon to make a visit with some relatives. They had gone but a short distance from the city when Olan struck the horse a gentle tap with the whip. It kicked, and in so doing got one leg over the shaft. It hobbled along on three legs for a short distance and then fell over in a ditch, taking the buggy and occupants with it. They were thrown out, but none of them injured. Olan sat on the horse's head until a farmer arrived and helped him out of the difficulty.

DIRECTORS HERE.

McBride and Hoopes Arrived in the City This Morning and Are Looking After Cases.

Infirmity Directors McBride and Hoopes were in the city today looking after four cases that they have on their hands in this city. They have had three of the cases for some time, but the other one is a new one and the person is ill with an attack of typhoid fever. The party came here from Summit county and the infirmity directors of that county will have to stand the expenses.

TRUSTEES DON'T FAVOR THE PLAN

Of Having No Township Doctor and Tell Some of Their Experiences.

A PHYSICIAN CHARGED $25

For Tending a Patient One Day While Another One Asked $30.

FOR TAKING CARE OF A CASE.

The township trustees have not yet selected a physician to fill the office of township doctor, but will probably do so this week.

Trustee Albright in speaking of the matter stated last night that some of the physicians of the city did not desire to have them appoint a township physician, but wanted them to let each physician take care of the business he got and the trustees could pay him. The trustee said they did not favor the plan and gave some of their experience along the line. In speaking of the matter the trustee said that sometime ago one of the physicians of the city had charge of a township case for one day and when he presented his bill it stated that he had made 12 visits and his claim was $25. The trustees refused to pay it and offered him $5, which he refused, and threatened to sue them. They told him to go ahead and sue and waited several weeks for him to do so, but one morning he sent to their office and said he would accept the $5.

Another case was a prison case and when the trustees sent the township physician to look after it he found a physician in charge. The physician said he would keep the case, but he did so without the consent of the trustees, who were surprised a short time later to receive a bill from him for $30. The trustees didn't pay him one cent, although they would not have objected to giving him at least $10.

The trustees say that it would cost them more for medicine under the plan the physicians like than it costs them for a physician and medicine now.

"AND A LITTLE CHILD."

East Liverpool Incidents Connected
With the India Famine
Relief Fund.

A little girl, bright and winsome in appearance, glided into the sanctum of the News Review office on Saturday afternoon and laid a small paper package in the hands of the writer, saying:

"That's for the little children who are so hungry."

The little one was not more than 5 or 6 years old, and we questioned her as to where the contents of the paper bag were to be sent, asking if she intended them to be sent to the little children who were starving in India, when a bright smile and an eagerly nodding head answered in the affirmative.

Upon opening the package after the departure of mother and daughter we found a silver dollar, contributed by the parent, and a nickel and 51 pennies, the gift of the little one, her savings fund being called upon for the emergency. The mother stated that her little daughter had heard them talking about the starving children in India, and she would not rest content until she had gathered her treasure trove together and given it to the sufferers. God bless mother and child and prosper them in basket and in store.

Shortly after this occurrence a gentleman called at the office and laid two silver half dollars on our desk, saying:

"Fifty cents for my wife, captain, and fifty cents for myself; not much, but it will do some good; we read your paper and staid away from the circus and concluded to give the amount thus saved to the famine sufferers." God bless husband and wife.

Later in the afternoon a fine looking lady, benevolence and love of God and humanity shining in her refined face, laid three new and crisp one dollar bills on our desk, remarking:

"I read your comments on the India famine and felt that I must give this amount."

"What name, lady?" was our query of the visitor.

"No name, please. I don't want my name published."

We explained that we would not make the name public in the News Review, but wanted it for the Christian Herald, New York, and in order to protect us in handling the fund, and we thus learned our visitor's name. God bless and prosper her. The Master will give her credit on His books on high.

A few more additions made a neat little fund, and the money went out from our postoffice, by means of a money order to the Christian Herald, on Saturday afternoon.

Are there not many more good Samaritans in this city? Don't despise the little things in the way of giving. Pennies make nickels, nickels make dimes, and dimes make dollars. The emergency is great. God is calling upon human instrumentalities. Don't delay. Your contributions will go forward on the same day they are received at this office. They are going to the Christian Herald, Bible House, New York city, daily, from all over this great nation, and then great sums are sent over to India by telegraph, and thousands upon thousands of human beings are saved from the horrible death of starvation. Give that which you give with a free heart and a free hand, and God will surely bless you. He has so promised; and His promises are never broken.

The statement that Messrs. Healy and Hoefgen, of East Liverpool, have been granted a franchise to operate an electric road through the streets of this city, is erroneous. The gentlemen have applied for a franchise, and the council directed the solicitor to draw up the ordinance; but it has not yet been acted upon, nor will it be for at least a fortnight, as the law requires the publication for three weeks of notice that such application has been made. There is no doubt, however, that the franchise will be granted, and perhaps little doubt that the long wished for and dreamed of trans-county electric road will become a reality during the next two years.

WOMEN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY MEETING EVER HELD.

Was That of Last Week at Potter Chapel, Mingo—Election of Officers.

The seventeenth annual meeting of the Women's Home Missionary society of Steubenville Presbytery, held at Potter chapel last week, was the most successful meeting the society has ever held. There were between 75 and 100 ladies present. Miss Elizabeth R. Johnson, of Steubenville, the treasurer of the society, reported that $1,178 had been sent to New York from this society during the past year to be used for educational purposes in the home missions. A collection of $15 was taken up for the contingent fund. Resolutions were adopted thanking the ladies of Mingo in the heartiest terms for their unlimited hospitality and also thanking Rev. and Mrs. Platts for their many kindnesses and their excellent musical selections. Acting upon a cordial invitation from the people of Denison it was decided to hold the next annual meeting in that city in June 1901. The following officers were elected:

President, Mrs. Rev. Robert White, Steubenville.

There was sweet singing at the First M. E. church last night. The quartet consisted of Mr. Dolby, Rochester; W. H. Martin, Beaver Falls; Philip Shumacker, New Brighton, and Mr. Phillis, East Liverpool. Several difficult selections were rendered in superb voice and manner. Philip Shumacker captured the hearts of his hearers in a magnificently rendered solo. The Phillis quartet is sure of a warm welcome in our city in the future.

School Board Met.

The school board of the district met Saturday at T. Allison's. The question of a location for the new school house was under consideration, but nothing definite was done at the meeting. Several sites were looked over and it is likely the board will decide at their next meeting, which will be regular meeting on July 2. The tax levy for the year will be made at this meeting and teachers chosen.

A New Road.

A petition is in circulation asking for the building of a new road from Newall's through the Potts and Thompson farms to a point near the residence on Frank Stewart's farm. The road as asked for would be about one and one-half miles in length.

Prefers the Branch.

Conductor Wils Marshall will remain permanently on the branch. He prefers the new run through to this place to the main line run, and was transferred back at his own request.

The Eighteenth Special.

The special train which has been chartered to carry the delegation of Eighteenth district to the Republican national convention at Philadelphia week after next will leave Canton a day later than had been previously announced. Arrangements had been made for the train to start from Canton, with the delegates from that vicinity and the famous Grand Army band, come on to Alliance and then to Salem and continue to Philadelphia. This route will not be changed, but instead of starting on June 16, as had been intended, the train will leave Canton at 6 o'clock on the morning of June 18, the day before the opening of the convention. It will probably arrive at Salem about 7 o'clock.

Narrowly Escaped.

A farmer driving over the railroad with a load of straw had a very narrow escape Saturday. He was driving over the crossing near the coal yard and was almost run down by a west bound passenger train. The engineer put on the air brakes and slowed down, the train just missing the loaded wagon.

The railroad company had a man here Saturday trying to put the electric bell at the crossing in working order. The bell has been out of repair for a long time and has been practically of no use.

This Date In History—June 11.

After the battle of the Nile and the downfall of Napoleon's oriental schemes the Maltese arose in insurrection and compelled the French to take refuge in the fortress of Valetta. Siege and famine reduced them to straits, and they surrendered to the English, who had come to aid the Maltese. England took the island and has since held it.

All that is left of Oom Paul is a reminiscence.

Russian designs on china do not appear to be popular abroad.

The latest important Filipino captured was pinched by the native police. Otis seems to be right about the war being over.

The fad for broken china seems to have become an international craze.

Only 10 per cent of the bills introduced at the last session of congress became laws. One per cent might have been enough.

Two Salem citizens have just returned from Philadelphia and pronounce the Pennsylvania town slow. Those Salem fellows are always discovering something.

Every town that Dewey visits that has a pond or a creek in its vicinity insists on the admiral going afloat. When he reaches Wellsville he will have to steam up Little Yellow creek.

Mahoning county Democrats declare "for the principles of true Democracy and pure Americanism." The man who guesses what that means can have their congressional nomination as a reward.

The appearance of the first street car in Mingo "caused some excitement," according to the Steubenville Gazette correspondent, but the people manfully resisted their first impulse of taking to the woods. Next week some of the Mingo people may be induced to board the car while it is hitched up.

TOBACCO FIENDS.

We have a communication, a very hot communication, from a well known citizen of East Liverpool, branding and berating and scorching tobacco chewers who stand at the street corners and in front of public places and expectorate all over the pavements, much to the disgust and annoyance of cleanly people in general and women pedestrians in particular. We do not publish the article in full on account of the very harsh epithets made use of therein.

"REMEMBER."

"Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy." This is the commandment of the Master. It means that which it says; nothing more, nothing less. Sunday excursions are a curse to any nation and to any commonwealth, no matter how carefully they are conducted, and no Christian man or woman can conscientiously ask God's blessing upon them or attend them or take any part in connection therewith. The excursion to this place yesterday was anything but a holy or Christian feature. It would be an insult to God Almighty to term it an excursion in favor of Christianity. It was an excursion in direct opposition to God's commandment: "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy."

SUNDAY DESECRATION.

There seems to be a determination on the part of wicked men in this city to desecrate the Sabbath day. Business places are run wide open, in defiance of the state law against Sunday desecration, and no effort is made by our city officials to bring the offenders to justice. The guilty ones would better be careful. They may pay the penalty for their bad conduct. State officials may step in upon them at any moment, and fines and imprisonment will surely follow. Attempting to hide under the plea of ignorance of the law will be of no avail. Local officials, now winking at your wickedness, will not dare come to your help, else their official heads may drop in the basket as lawbreakers. Patience has ceased to be a virtue, and lawbreakers and Sabbath desecrators must be taught a much needed lesson.

HOODLUMS.

They deserve no better name. We have reference to the crowd which made night hideous on Sunday, in the upper story of the Thompson block, Fifth avenue. The church people were wending their way home last night, about 10 o'clock, when pandemonium broke loose in the quarters designated, and the general impression was that a fight was going on in the building, as chairs were overturned, cat calls resounded on all sides, and finally the lights were turned out. On every hand arose the question: "Where are the police." Again the lights were turned on, and immediately afterward ringing cheers saluted the ears of the people on the pavements below and the pounding and cat calls were resumed. An indignant citizen sent a telephone message to city hall, but there was no one there. Then the fire department was called up and notified of the Sabbath desecration being carried on; a courteous fireman hunted up Chief Morley, and the chief answered that the matter should receive immediate attention. The conservative and church going portion of this city are determined that such features shall cease as controlled yesterday, and there will be no procrastination or trifling in the matter. Forbearance has ceased to be a virtue.

RELIGIOUS CENSUS.

RESULTS OF THE CANVASS MADE IN WELLSVILLE LAST WEEK.

M. E. Church Leads, With Presbyterian and Disciple Second and Third.

The religious census of Wellsville has been completed and the report of the enumerators show that they visited 1,146 families during their travels.

The total church membership of the city is 3,543 and is divided as follows: Adventists, 3; Catholic, 306; Disciple, 537; Episcopalian, 93; Evangelical, 149; Lutheran, 12; Methodist Episcopal, 927; Methodist Protestant, 378; Presbyterian, 899; African Methodist Episcopal, 40; United Presbyterian, 289.

The total number of people who don't belong to church, but have a preference, is 690, divided as follows: Catholic, 17; Disciple, 83; Episcopalian, 13; Evangelical, 27; Methodist Episcopal, 341; Methodist Protestant, 70; African Methodist Episcopal, 4; Presbyterian, 128; United Presbyterian, 59; Universalist, 1.

There was 140 people who had no choice and 249 parties in the city who roomed there.

The total number of Sunday school scholars in the city were 1,621, divided as follows: Catholic, 107; Disciple, 265; Episcopalian, 48; Evangelical, 90; Lutheran, 9; Methodist Episcopal, 433; Methodist Protestant, 130; African Methodist Episcopal, 14; Presbyterian, 414; United Presbyterian, 180.

ORGANIZED.

The Bakers Met Saturday Night and Elected Their First Set of Officers.

The bakers' union, No. 80, met Saturday night and perfected their organization and every shop in the city except one has signed the scale. The officers elected were:

President, Mike Peterson; vice president, Lenhart Hauck; treasurer, John Schnovell; financial secretary, James Skinner; recording secretary, Valentine Henry; sergeant-at-arms, Ferdinand Henry; trustees, Charles Miller, Stephen Usher, Mike Peterson; delegates to Trades Council, John Schnovell, Stephen Usher, James Skinner, Lenhart Hauck, Charles Miller.

Don't Want a Sewer Now.

Wellsville people decided last Saturday that they didn't want that storm water sewer at present. Of course a majority of the citizens favored the sewer, but there wasn't the necessary two-thirds. The total vote cast was 505 and stood 324 for the sewer and 181 against it.

Murphy-Thompson—Firth, catcher; Chambers, pitcher; Phillips, short; McShane, first; Gallagher, second; Welch, third; Tomlinson, first; Allison, middle; Mackall, right.

K., T. & K.—Millward, catcher; Davis, pitcher; Kennedy, short; Winters, first; C. Reark, second; Hunter, third; Trainor, left; Chadwick, middle; Huff, right.

The Murphy-Thompson aggregation has been strengthened considerably and the game should be a good one.

Dell Roy Man Got It.

State Mine Inspector Biddison has announced that James P. Davis, of Dell Roy, Carroll Co., will be retained indefinitely as deputy inspector of this the Sixth district. Reese Davis, of East Palestine, has been the deputy, but a recent readjustment of the district places Carroll county in this subdivision, and the retention of the gentleman from Dell Roy cancels, for the present, at least, Mr. Davis' chance for reappointment.

A Lame Law.

Attorney General Sheets believes that the force of the parole law of the state is impaired by the fact that under it he thinks prisoners who have violated their word cannot be taken into custody until the board of managers of the penitentiary has annulled the paroles. If the violation was committed immediately after the monthly meeting of the board of managers, the plenty of time to make good his escape.

Brooks-Emeny Engagement.

At a musicale given at the home of J. Twing Brooks in Salem, the engagement of their eldest daughter, Miss Elizabeth Brooks, to Frederick J. Emeny was formally announced. Mr. Emeny was formally announced. Mr. Emeny is chief draughtsman in the office of the Deming company of that city. Miss Brooks is prominent in church and charitable work. The marriage will take place in the fall.

All that is left of Oom Paul is a reminiscence.

Russian designs on china do not appear to be popular abroad.

The latest important Filipino captured was pinched by the native police. Otis seems to be right about the war being over.

The fad for broken china seems to have become an international craze.

Only 10 per cent of the bills introduced at the last session of congress became laws. One per cent might have been enough.

Two Salem citizens have just returned from Philadelphia and pronounce the Pennsylvania town slow. Those Salem fellows are always discovering something.

Every town that Devey visits that has a pond or a creek in its vicinity insists on the admiral going afloat. When he reaches Wellsville he will have to steam up Little Yellow creek.

Mahoning county Democrats declare "for the principles of true Democracy and pure Americanism." The man who guesses what that means can have their congressional nomination as a reward.

The appearance of the first street car in Mingo "caused some excitement," according to the Steubenville Gazette correspondent, but the people manfully resisted their first impulse of taking to the woods. Next week some of the Mingo people may be induced to board the car while it is hitched up.

TOBACCO FIENDS.

We have a communication, a very hot communication, from a well known citizen of East Liverpool, branding and berating and scorching tobacco chewers who stand at the street corners and in front of public places and expectorate all over the pavements, much to the disgust and annoyance of cleanly people in general and women pedestrians in particular. We do not publish the article in full on account of the very harsh epithets made use of therein.

"REMEMBER."

"Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy." This is the commandment of the Master. It means that which it says; nothing more, nothing less. Sunday excursions are a curse to any nation and to any commonwealth, no matter how carefully they are conducted, and no Christian man or woman can conscientiously ask God's blessing upon them or attend them or take any part in connection therewith. The excursion to this place yesterday was anything but a holy or Christian feature. It would be an insult to God Almighty to term it an excursion in favor of Christianity. It was an excursion in direct opposition to God's commandment: "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy."

SUNDAY DESECRATION.

There seems to be a determination on the part of wicked men in this city to desecrate the Sabbath day. Business places are run wide open, in defiance of the state law against Sunday desecration, and no effort is made by our city officials to bring the offenders to justice. The guilty ones would better be careful. They may pay the penalty for their bad conduct. State officials may step in upon them at any moment, and fines and imprisonment will surely follow. Attempting to hide under the plea of ignorance of the law will be of no avail. Local officials, now winking at your wickedness, will not dare come to your help, else their official heads may drop in the basket as lawbreakers. Patience has ceased to be a virtue, and lawbreakers and Sabbath desecrators must be taught a much needed lesson.

HOODLUMS.

They deserve no better name. We have reference to the crowd which made night hideous on Sunday, in the upper story of the Thompson block, Fifth avenue. The church people were wending their way home last night, about 10 o'clock, when pandemonium broke loose in the quarters designated, and the general impression was that a fight was going on in the building, as chairs were overturned, cat calls resounded on all sides, and finally the lights were turned out. On every hand arose the question: "Where are the police." Again the lights were turned on, and immediately afterward ringing cheers saluted the ears of the people on the pavements below and the pounding and cat calls were resumed. An indignant citizen sent a telephone message to city hall, but there was no one there. Then the fire department was called up and notified of the Sabbath desecration being carried on; a courteous fireman hunted up Chief Morley, and the chief answered that the matter should receive immediate attention. The conservative and church going portion of this city are determined that such features shall cease as controlled yesterday, and there will be no procrastination or trifling in the matter. Forbearance has ceased to be a virtue.

ORGANIZED.

The Bakers Met Saturday Night and Elected Their First Set of Officers.

The bakers' union, No. 80, met Saturday night and perfected their organization and every shop in the city except one has signed the scale. The officers elected were:

President, Mike Peterson; vice president, Lenhart Hauck; treasurer, John Schnovell; financial secretary, James Skinner; recording secretary, Valentine Henry; sergeant-at-arms, Ferdinand Henry; trustees, Charles Miller, Stephen Usher, Mike Peterson; delegates to Trades Council, John Schnovell, Stephen Usher, James Skinner, Lenhart Hauck, Charles Miller.

Don't Want a Sewer Now.

Wellsville people decided last Saturday that they didn't want that storm water sewer at present. Of course a majority of the citizens favored the sewer, but there wasn't the necessary two-thirds. The total vote cast was 505 and stood 324 for the sewer and 181 against it.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

VISITING KNIGHTS AND FRIENDS

Elaborate Exercises Connected With the Ceremony of Installation.

BANQUETED AT ROCK SPRING.

East Liverpool council No. 509, Knights of Columbus, was instituted in this city yesterday. The lodge starts with a membership of 53, but it is expected to reach 100 before next fall. Probably more than 300 out-of-town Knights were present and participated in the ceremonies.

Everything connected with the institution of the lodge went through without a hitch, and the day will be long remembered by the Knights and their friends. The ceremonies were in charge of William A. Maline, of Youngstown, O., who is district deputy supreme knight.

At 10 o'clock the candidates and visiting Knights assembled at the Carroll club rooms. They marched from there to St. Aloysius church, where special mass was held for the Knights of Columbus. The first and third degrees were conferred in N. B. of O. P. hall at 10 o'clock. After becoming thus far acquainted with the secrets of the order the visitors were entertained in an informal way by the Knights and their friends.

The banquet at Rock Springs park in the afternoon was an enjoyable event. Plates were set for 400 people, who did ample justice to the excellent menu. By the time the feast was over all were in an excellent humor and thoroughly prepared to enjoy the toasts which followed. Hon. Peter J. Collins, of Canton, responded to the toast, "Our Relation to the Republic," in a very able manner. "Do We Need the Knights of Columbus?" was answered strongly in the affirmative by Thomas J. Duffy, the new elected grand knight of the lodge. Rev. James H. Halligan responded in an able manner on the subject, "Unity." Dr. Charles A. Wingetter, of Wheeling, won the applause of the banqueters by his toast on "Knighthood." Addresses by Father Dacey, of Steubenville, and J. J. Coniff, esq., of Wheeling, were well received and were none the less able because they were impromptu. M. J. McGarry performed his duties as toastmaster with credit to himself and the new lodge. The banquet was closed in a happy way by the singing of the national hymn, "America."

Nowling's orchestra added much to the enjoyment of the banquet by the rendering of a specially prepared musical program. This feature was the subject of much favorable comment by the visitors.

The third degree was conferred at N. B. of O. P. hall at 7.30 in the evening.

The following officers were installed yesterday to serve for a term of one year: T. J. Duffy, grand knight; J. J. Weisend, deputy grand knight; Albert Grim, chancellor; P. J. McCune, financial secretary; Jerry Creden, recording secretary; D. T. McCarron, treasurer; Albert A. Taylor, lecturer; George DeTemple, advocate; Cline Calhoun, warden; John Ryan, inside guard; Thomas Woods, outside guard; Edward Grim, Thomas Plunkett, M. E. Miskall, James Flood and William J. Feist, trustees.

Wellsville Improvements. Wellsville's new viaduct in the East End, sanitary and storm sewer system and new brick pavements all over town, will make that place, according to the Union's belief, one of the best towns in Ohio.

BOTH JUMPED.

PLAYMATE WANTED TO SEE IF YOUNG CALL WOULD JUMP

If He Fired an "Unloaded" Revolver at Him—Bullet Hit Call in Leg.

Moses Call was hurt yesterday as a result of a curiosity of a playmate. Several boys were bathing in the river below the flint mill. A boy named Hughes had a revolver which was loaded, as he thought, with a blank cartridge. He wondered if Call would be scared if he fired at his legs. The question kept revolving in his mind. He finally decided to put the matter to a test. As the cartridge was blank no harm could possibly come from finding out. So when Call was not looking in his direction he shot at his legs to see if he would jump. He jumped. It is presumed that his jumping exceeded Hughes' fondest expectations. The jumping was accompanied by a series of howls, which had not entered into the program prepared by Hughes.

The cause of the demonstration was the fact that the revolver was loaded. The bullet struck Call in the calf of the leg. Dr. Norton was called. He extracted the bullet and the victim is now little the worse for his little scare.

The Missing Cashier Couldn't Find the Note When the Amount Was Turned Over.

THE RECEIVER FOUND IT LATER.

Lisbon, June 11.—(Special.)—L. C. Laylin, receiver of the First National bank, today began an action to obtain a judgment for $4,500 against Robert W. Tayler. On November 25, 1896, Tayler gave a note to N. B. Billingsley for the above amount and shortly afterwards Billingsley disposed of the note to the bank. The receiver says he found this note as part of the assets of the bank and is trying to collect on it. Tayler claims he paid the note, but that Cashier Child at the time said he could not find the note, and apparently failed to cancel it later.

Collins, of Canton, responded to the toast, "Our Relation to the Republic," in a very able manner. "Do We Need the Knights of Columbus?" was answered strongly in the affirmative by Thomas J. Duffy, the new elected grand knight of the lodge. Rev. James H. Halligan responded in an able manner on the subject, "Unity." Dr. Charles A. Wingetter, of Wheeling, won the applause of the banqueters by his toast on "Knighthood." Addresses by Father Dacey, of Steubenville, and J. J. Coniff, esq., of Wheeling, were well received and were none the less able because they were impromptu. M. J. McGarry performed his duties as toastmaster with credit to himself and the new lodge. The banquet was closed in a happy way by the singing of the national hymn, "America."

Nowling's orchestra added much to the enjoyment of the banquet by the rendering of a specially prepared musical program. This feature was the subject of much favorable comment by the visitors.

The third degree was conferred at N. B. of O. P. hall at 7.30 in the evening.

The following officers were installed yesterday to serve for a term of one year: T. J. Duffy, grand knight; J. J. Weisend, deputy grand knight; Albert Grim, chancellor; P. J. McCune, financial secretary; Jerry Creden, recording secretary; D. T. McCarron, treasurer; Albert A. Taylor, lecturer; George DeTemple, advocate; Cline Calhoun, warden; John Ryan, inside guard; Thomas Woods, outside guard; Edward Grim, Thomas Plunkett, M. E. Miskall, James Flood and William J. Feist, trustees.

BOTH JUMPED.

PLAYMATE WANTED TO SEE IF YOUNG CALL WOULD JUMP

If He Fired an "Unloaded" Revolver at Him—Bullet Hit Call in Leg.

Moses Call was hurt yesterday as a result of a curiosity of a playmate. Several boys were bathing in the river below the flint mill. A boy named Hughes had a revolver which was loaded, as he thought, with a blank cartridge. He wondered if Call would be scared if he fired at his legs. The question kept revolving in his mind. He finally decided to put the matter to a test. As the cartridge was blank no harm could possibly come from finding out. So when Call was not looking in his direction he shot at his legs to see if he would jump. He jumped. It is presumed that his jumping exceeded Hughes' fondest expectations. The jumping was accompanied by a series of howls, which had not entered into the program prepared by Hughes.

The cause of the demonstration was the fact that the revolver was loaded. The bullet struck Call in the calf of the leg. Dr. Norton was called. He extracted the bullet and the victim is now little the worse for his little scare.

WHO CLAIMS IT WAS PAID

The Missing Cashier Couldn't Find the Note When the Amount Was Turned Over.

THE RECEIVER FOUND IT LATER.

Lisbon, June 11.—(Special.)—L. C. Laylin, receiver of the First National bank, today began an action to obtain a judgment for $4,500 against Robert W. Tayler. On November 25, 1896, Tayler gave a note to N. B. Billingsley for the above amount and shortly afterwards Billingsley disposed of the note to the bank. The receiver says he found this note as part of the assets of the bank and is trying to collect on it. Tayler claims he paid the note, but that Cashier Child at the time said he could not find the note, and apparently failed to cancel it later.

PROBLEM FACES TAFT

Conditions Almost Stagger His Commission.

MANY CALLERS WITH PLANS.

The utterances of the chairman indicated a conciliatory policy toward the natives—Army officers urged larger army to suppress rebellion.

MANILA, June 11.—Judge William H. Taft and his colleagues of the Philippine civil commission were beset during their first week in Manila by a multitude of callers of all nationalities, professions and interests, who presented a bewildering assortment of recommendations touching military and civil policies. The commissioners maintained the attitude of unprejudiced listeners. They admitted that, while they anticipated an enormous task, the complexity and difficulty of the problems and conditions were well nigh staggering. They were determined, however, with the co-operation of the army, in pacifying as well as fighting, to make the Philippines a peaceful and honestly governed country before departing.

They found General MacArthur administering civil and military affairs in a way that was universally popular. The Filipino party, embracing prominent insurrectionists who accepted American rule through force of circumstances, has been making overtures for the discussion of a scheme of permanent government, practically reviving the old proposition of autonomy under an American protectorate.

There were, of course, some Filipinos who believed that Judge Taft would bring the millennium in his vest pocket, and these professed to be disappointed because sweeping changes were not made immediately. Judge Taft's utterances indicated a conciliatory policy toward the natives. He had conferred with the high army officers, some of whom strongly urged that a larger army was necessary to suppress the insurrection, believing that civil government would be impossible until the rampant rebellion in the southern districts of Luzon, in the extreme northern provinces of the island and in the Visayas, except Negros, was crushed.

One of the foremost questions is how and from what materials to organize a civil force with which gradually to supersede the army as a governing machine. Spain's auxiliary, the church, is necessarily barred from consideration. American experience with the natives discouraged the hope of honest government through them until a generation or more of training shall have eradicated the results of Spain's tutelage. A large proportion of the provincial officials already installed have proven treacherous, while the native police and officials here in Manila were living on a scale of luxury suspiciously disproportionate to their salaries. Charges against native judges of failing to account for thousands of dollars received in fines are under investigation.

General Otis' plan of municipal governments was being inaugurated in the principal towns of Central Luzon and in parts of the Visayas, but the Filipinos persisted in thinking that the question whether the United States would retain the Philippines was still open, and some local leaders asked that municipal elections be postponed until after the presidential election. Many people objected to taking the oath of allegiance to the United States government, which was the first qualification for voting for municipal candidates.

The commissioners also found that the future state of the church in the Philippines was a leading question in the minds of many, although most of those who had talked with Judge Taft and his colleagues drew the inference that the commissioners were opposed to the reinstatement of the friars. Archbishop Chappelle took a strong stand in supporting the request of the friars to be established in their old position.

As a result of last week's scouting more than 200 Filipinos were killed and 160 captured, while 140 rifles, with ammunition and stores, were secured.

The American loss was nine killed, including a captain and a lieutenant, two captains and 21 privates wounded and one captain taken prisoner by the Filipinos.

A REIGN OF TERROR

THE REBELS' SCHEME

Said to Plan to Repeat in Philippines the Devastation of Cuba—MacArthur's Hard Task.

[Correspondence.]

MANILA, June 11.—General MacArthur has to fight a secret organization which amounts to almost a government, which exercises power to some extent and enforces its decrees over all of Luzon and most of the other islands, which collects taxes here in Manila and even gives receipts for duties paid on the cargoes of native boats passing up the rivers in the suburbs. The control of this underground organization is reported to be in the hands of a junta whose headquarters are in Manila.

The policy of the insurgent machine is to repeat the Cuban revolution in the Philippines, to discourage conquest by so devastating the islands and keeping them in such a state of war that they will be useless to the conquerors. Nowhere outside of the garrisoned towns can Americans go except in large armed parties, unless the country for 20 miles south of Manila and ten miles north be excepted. The provinces directly south of Manila and those north as far as Dagupan are the quietest of the island, and there schools and local governments are in operation, and much money is being expended in building roads and other improvements.

The municipal governments prove useful under the strict supervision of the American officers and the towns are cleaner and better administered than many American villages, but, generally speaking, the native officials have no initiative and their efficiency, without the personal vigilance of the American officers, would be doubtful.

The theory that the Filipinos outside of the Tagalo provinces were friendly to American rule has been deeply shaken by recent events. All of the northeastern coast beyond Dagupan is in a state of war, and there are frequent fights with heavy losses to the Filipinos.

All of the southern provinces inhabited by the Visayans are also turbulent, and in the Camarines, Nueva Carceres and Alba provinces they control only the territory within the picket lines of the garrisons in the coast towns, while these garrisons are subject to frequent attacks from large insurgent forces. With the exception of Negros, which, being the wealthiest island of the Philippines, is the most friendly to American rule, the Visayan islands show practically similar conditions.

How long the present conditions may continue is a discouraging question. Most of the officers think the thorough conquest of the islands along present lines must be a slow work of years unless the government should adopt methods resembling those by which England crushed the Indian mutiny. Neither alternative pleases them.

IN MCKINLEY'S STATE.

Democrats Talk of Contesting Every County.

HEADQUARTERS AT COLUMBUS.

Move on Foot to Have the National Headquarters There—Ohio Convention Meets Tomorrow and Wednesday—Some of Candidates For Delegate.

COLUMBUS, O., June 11.—The Democratic state convention meets here tomorrow and Wednesday to select delegates at-large and alternates to the Kansas City convention and to nominate candidates for electors-at-large, secretary of state, judge of the supreme court, dairy and food commissioner, commissioner of schools and members of the board of public works. There is the usual list of contestants for the state offices and the usual diversity of opinion as to the platform.

John McLean, proprietor of the Cincinnati Enquirer, headed the Democratic ticket for governor last year and probably would be selected as the head of the Ohio delegation to Kansas City this year, but he announced that other engagements will prevent him from attending the Kansas City convention. Mr. McLean is expected to sail, with his family, for Europe next Saturday, to be out of the country for an indefinite period. There will be no effort to advance the Dewey candidacy for the presidency as some had expected would be the case here this week. It is conceded that the convention will unanimously endorse Bryan for president.

Among the most prominent names mentioned for delegates-at-large were Colonel James Kilbourne, of Columbus, the leading candidate against McLean for the nomination for governor last year; William S. Thomas, of Springfield, chairman of the committee; John C. Welby, of Canton; Charles N. Haskell, of Ottawa; George W. Hull, of Toledo; Abe Patrick, of Tuscarawas; Horace L. Chapman, of Jackson; John J. Lentz, of Columbus; Frank M. Merriott, of Delaware; and Herman Groesbeck, of Cincinnati.

There was a movement here to have the national Democratic headquarters located in Columbus during this campaign. It was claimed that the Democratic state committee of Kentucky had endorsed Columbus. The Democratic state convention of West Virginia last Thursday adopted a strong resolution endorsing Columbus and similar movements are on foot in other states. It is claimed that the Democrats should carry the war into McKinley's state and contest every county in Ohio. It was also argued that the border states of Indiana, Kentucky and West Virginia are the doubtful ones that might decide the result and that they were easily reached from Columbus.

REPUBLICANS

IN PHILADELPHIA

Some of the Prominent Leaders Already There—Hanna and Dick Were Expected Today.

PHILADELPHIA, June 11.—The vanguard of the national Republican convention crowd is already here. Senator Scott, of West Virginia; National Committeeman Henry C. Payne, of Wisconsin; Committeeman Joseph H. Manley, of Maine; Ambassador to Mexico Powell Clayton, who represents Arkansas on the national committee; Judge W. B. Heyburn, of Idaho; and J. M. Ashton, one of the delegates at-large from Washington, arrived the past few days. National Committeeman Richard C. Kerens, of Missouri, who had been here for several days, left for St. Louis to attend the wedding of his son, and will return with the Missouri delegation, probably on Saturday. Ambassador Clayton, it was expected, will go to Washington today and will return in time to attend the national committee meeting on Wednesday.

National Chairman Hanna and Secretary Dick are expected today.

The convention hall is all ready. The seating capacity was estimated to be close to 16,000.

The national committee will hold its first session in this city Wednesday, when every member is expected to be present with the exception of General James H. Wilson, of Delaware, who is in Cuba. At this meeting the committee will go over the work already done in preparation for the convention and will smooth out the little details. The organization of the convention will, in all likelihood, be taken up and finally passed upon. The greatest task assigned to the national committee will be the matter of contests.

The committee is expected to take such action as will make the work of the credentials committee easier. With the exception of the Eleventh Pennsylvania congressional district every delegate to the convention in the United States has been elected. The Eleventh Pennsylvania will elect its two delegates at Scranton today. As far as known here notice of contests have been given as follows:

Alabama, two entire delegations.
Delaware, two entire delegations.
Georgia, First and Eighth districts.
Louisiana, Second and Fifth districts.
Pennsylvania, Nineteenth district.
Texas, delegates-at-large and First, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh and Ninth districts.
Tennessee, delegates-at-large.

AT GRAVE OF MOODY.

Services Held on Round Top—Young Moody Elected to the School Faculty.

EAST NORTHFIELD, Mass., June 11.—The annual meeting of the board of trustees of the Northfield seminary was held here. The old board was re-elected, except that Mrs. J. H. Harris, of New London, wife of the late professor of the board, wished her name dropped. The two new members elected to the board were Paul Dwight Moody, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of his father, Dwight L. Moody, and George E. Keith, of Brockton, Mass.

By the appointment of Mr. Moody's son to this position, Mr. Moody's last request from his deathbed is fulfilled. The treasurer's report was very encouraging.

The trustees resolved that the work should go on without any diminution.

This body has already subscribed $80,000 toward the endowment fund with several yet to hear from. The current expenses of the year have been practically met. However the outstanding debts at present amount to about $10,000.

The first public meeting on Round Top since the burial of Mr. Moody occurred Sunday afternoon, as used to occur.

At the close of the service the entire company surrounded the grave of Mr. Moody and sang some of his favorite hymns.

The service was most impressive.

THE POPE PARTICIPATED.

Took Part In Ceremony of Veneration of Two Italian Saints—Appeared In Food Health.

ROME, June 11.—The pope went to St. Peter's cathedral, Sunday, to participate in the ceremony of veneration in the case of two Italian saints recently canonized. Thirty thousand people were present.

He was borne on the Sedia Gestoria, surrounded by several cardinals and the papal court. He seemed in good health, and when giving the blessing to the pilgrims rose from his seat briskly, as if he wished to reassure the congregation regarding his condition.

NEW YORK, June 11.—Anson Phelps Stokes, Jr., third son of Anson Phelps Stokes and one of New York's richest young men, was ordained an Episcopal deacon by Bishop Henry C. Potter at the cathedral of St. John the Divine. Mr. Stokes had long intended to enter the ministry. In 1897 he entered the Episcopal Theological seminary at Cambridge, Mass., where he has just finished his theological course. Mr. Stokes, since November, 1899, has been secretary of the Yale corporation and will continue his duties with the university.

FLUID IN HIS SKULL.

Boy Died From Enlargement and Remarkable Condition Was Discovered.

TOLEDO, O., June 11.—James McNeely, a 13-year-old boy of Avondale, died after suffering from enlargement of the skull, his head measuring 30½ inches in circumference.

When the skull was opened at the autopsy the physicians were surprised to find that it enclosed five and one-half quarts of fluid as clear as crystal. The brain, instead of being solid, was hollow, and in the interior was this fluid. The skull was a mere shell of scarcely a sixteenth of an inch.

Young McNeely was unusually bright. In fact, he was farther advanced in this respect than most boys of his age.

James Pierce left a letter to his mother, father and sister, in which he protested his innocence.

PROBLEM FACES TAFT

Conditions Almost Stagger His Commission.

MANY CALLERS WITH PLANS.

The utterances of the chairman indicated a conciliatory policy toward the natives—Army officers urged larger army to suppress rebellion.

MANILA, June 11.—Judge William H. Taft and his colleagues of the Philippine civil commission were beset during their first week in Manila by a multitude of callers of all nationalities, professions and interests, who presented a bewildering assortment of recommendations touching military and civil policies. The commissioners maintained the attitude of unprejudiced listeners. They admitted that, while they anticipated an enormous task, the complexity and difficulty of the problems and conditions were well high staggering. They were determined, however, with the co-operation of the army, in pacifying as well as fighting, to make the Philippines a peaceful and honestly governed country before departing.

They found General MacArthur administering civil and military affairs in a way that was universally popular. The Filipino party, embracing prominent insurrectionists who accepted American rule through force of circumstances, has been making overtures for the discussion of a scheme of permanent government, practically reviving the old proposition of autonomy under an American protectorate.

There were, of course, some Filipinos who believed that Judge Taft would bring the millennium in his vest pocket, and these professed to be disappointed because sweeping changes were not made immediately. Judge Taft's utterances indicated a conciliatory policy toward the natives. He had conferred with the high army officers, some of whom strongly urged that a larger army was necessary to suppress the insurrection, believing that civil government would be impossible until the rampant rebellion in the southern districts of Luzon, in the extreme northern provinces of the island and in the Visayas, except Negros, was crushed.

One of the foremost questions is how and from what materials to organize a civil force with which gradually to supersede the army as a governing machine. Spain's auxiliary, the church, is necessarily barred from consideration. American experience with the natives discouraged the hope of honest government through them until a generation or more of training shall have eradicated the results of Spain's tutelage. A large proportion of the provincial officials already installed have proven treacherous, while the native police and officials here in Manila were living on a scale of luxury suspiciously disproportionate to their salaries. Charges against native judges of failing to account for thousands of dollars received in fines are under investigation.

General Otis' plan of municipal governments was being inaugurated in the principal towns of Central Luzon and in parts of the Visayas, but the Filipinos persisted in thinking that the question whether the United States would retain the Philippines was still open, and some local leaders asked that municipal elections be postponed until after the presidential election. Many people objected to taking the oath of allegiance to the United States government, which was the first qualification for voting for municipal candidates.

The commissioners also found that the future state of the church in the Philippines was a leading question in the minds of many, although most of those who had talked with Judge Taft and his colleagues drew the inference that the commissioners were opposed to the reinstatement of the friars. Archbishop Chappelle took a strong stand in supporting the request of the friars to be established in their old position.

As a result of last week's scouting more than 200 Filipinos were killed and 160 captured, while 140 rifles, with ammunition and stores, were secured.

The American loss was nine killed, including a captain and a lieutenant, two captains and 21 privates wounded and one captain taken prisoner by the Filipinos.

A REIGN OF TERROR

THE REBELS' SCHEME

Said to Plan to Repeat in Philippines the Devastation of Cuba—MacArthur's Hard Task.

[Correspondence.]

MANILA, June 11.—General MacArthur has to fight a secret organization which amounts to almost a government, which exercises power to some extent and enforces its decrees over all of Luzon and most of the other islands, which collects taxes here in Manila and even gives receipts for duties paid on the cargoes of native boats passing up the rivers in the suburbs. The control of this underground organization is reported to be in the hands of a junta whose headquarters are in Manila.

The policy of the insurgent machine is to repeat the Cuban revolution in the Philippines, to discourage conquest by so devastating the islands and keeping them in such a state of war that they will be useless to the conquerors. No where outside of the garrisoned towns can Americans go except in large armed parties, unless the country for 20 miles south of Manila and ten miles north be excepted. The provinces directly south of Manila and those north as far as Dagupan are the quietest of the island, and there schools and local governments are in operation, and much money is being expended in building roads and other improvements.

The municipal governments prove useful under the strict supervision of the American officers and the towns are cleaner and better administered than many American villages, but, generally speaking, the native officials have no initiative and their efficiency, without the personal vigilance of the American officers, would be doubtful.

The theory that the Filipinos outside of the Tagalog provinces were friendly to American rule has been deeply shaken by recent events. All of the northeastern coast beyond Dagupan is in a state of war, and there are frequent fights with heavy losses to the Filipinos.

All of the southern provinces inhabited by the Visayans are also turbulent, and in the Camarines, Nueva Carceres and Alaba provinces they control only the territory within the picket lines of the garrisons in the coast towns, while these garrisons are subject to frequent attacks from large insurgent forces. With the exception of Negros, which, being the wealthiest island of the Philippines, is the most friendly to American rule, the Visayan islands show practically similar conditions.

How long the present conditions may continue is a discouraging question. Most of the officers think the thorough conquest of the islands along present lines must be a slow work of years unless the government should adopt methods resembling those by which England crushed the Indian mutiny. Neither alternative pleases them.

IN MCKINLEY'S STATE.

Democrats Talk of Contesting Every County.

HEADQUARTERS AT COLUMBUS.

Move on Foot to Have the National Headquarters There—Ohio Convention Meets Tomorrow and Wednesday—Some of Candidates For Delegate.

COLUMBUS, O., June 11.—The Democratic state convention meets here tomorrow and Wednesday to select delegates at-large and alternates to the Kansas City convention and to nominate candidates for electors-at-large, secretary of state, judge of the supreme court, dairy and food commissioner, commissioner of schools and members of the board of public works. There is the usual list of contestants for the state offices and the usual diversity of opinion as to the platform.

John McLean, proprietor of the Cincinnati Enquirer, headed the Democratic ticket for governor last year and probably would be selected as the head of the Ohio delegation to Kansas City this year, but he announced that other engagements will prevent him from attending the Kansas City convention. Mr. McLean is expected to sail, with his family, for Europe next Saturday, to be out of the country for an indefinite period. There will be no effort to advance the Dewey candidacy for the presidency as some had expected would be the case here this week. It is conceded that the convention will unanimously endorse Bryan for president.

Among the most prominent names mentioned for delegates-at-large were Colonel James Kilbourne, of Columbus, the leading candidate against McLean for the nomination for governor last year; William S. Thomas, of Springfield, chairman of the committee; John C. Welty, of Canton; Charles N. Haskell, of Ottawa; George W. Hull, of Toledo; Abe Patrick, of Tuscarawas; Horace L. Chapman, of Jackson; John J. Lentz, of Columbus; Frank M. Merriott, of Delaware, and Herman Groesbeck, of Cincinnati.

There was a movement here to have the national Democratic headquarters located in Columbus during this campaign. It was claimed that the Democratic state committee of Kentucky had endorsed Columbus. The Democratic state convention of West Virginia last Thursday adopted a strong resolution endorsing Columbus and similar movements are on foot in other states. It is claimed that the Democrats should carry the war into McKinley's state and contest every county in Ohio. It was also argued that the border states of Indiana, Kentucky and West Virginia are the doubtful ones that might decide the result and that they were easily reached from Columbus.

REPUBLICANS

IN PHILADELPHIA

Some of the Prominent Leaders Already There—Hanna and Dick Were Expected Today.

PHILADELPHIA, June 11.—The vanguard of the national Republican convention crowd is already here. Senator Scott, of West Virginia; National Committeeman Henry C. Payne, of Wisconsin; Committeeman Joseph H. Manley, of Maine; Ambassador to Mexico Powell Clayton, who represents Arkansas on the national committee; Judge W. B. Heyburn, of Idaho, and J. M. Ashton, one of the delegates at-large from Washington, arrived the past few days. National Committeeman Richard C. Kerens, of Missouri, who had been here for several days, left for St. Louis to attend the wedding of his son, and will return with the Missouri delegation, probably on Saturday. Ambassador Clayton, it was expected, will go to Washington today and will return in time to attend the national committee meeting on Wednesday.

National Chairman Hanna and Secretary Dick are expected today.

The convention hall is all ready. The seating capacity was estimated to be close to 16,000.

The national committee will hold its first session in this city Wednesday, when every member is expected to be present with the exception of General James H. Wilson, of Delaware, who is in Cuba. At this meeting the committee will go over the work already done in preparation for the convention and will smooth out the little details. The organization of the convention will, in all likelihood, be taken up and finally passed upon. The greatest task assigned to the national committee will be the matter of contests.

The committee is expected to take such action as will make the work of the credentials committee easier. With the exception of the Eleventh Pennsylvania congressional district every delegate to the convention in the United States has been elected. The Eleventh Pennsylvania will elect its two delegates at Scranton today. As far as known here notice of contests have been given as follows:

Alabama, two entire delegations.
Delaware, two entire delegations.
Georgia, First and Eighth districts.
Louisiana, Second and Fifth districts.
Pennsylvania, Nineteenth district.
Texas, delegates-at-large and First, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh and Ninth districts.
Tennessee, delegates-at-large.

AT GRAVE OF MOODY.

Services Held on Round Top—Young Moody Elected to the School Faculty.

EAST NORTHFIELD, Mass., June 11.—The annual meeting of the board of trustees of the Northfield seminary was held here. The old board was re-elected, except that Mrs. J. H. Harris, of New London, wife of the late professor of the board, wished her name dropped. The two new members elected to the board were Paul Dwight Moody, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of his father, Dwight L. Moody, and George E. Keith, of Brockton, Mass.

By the appointment of Mr. Moody's son to this position, Mr. Moody's last request from his deathbed is fulfilled. The treasurer's report was very encouraging.

The trustees resolved that the work should go on without any diminution.

This body has already subscribed $80,000 toward the endowment fund with several yet to hear from. The current expenses of the year have been practically met. However the outstanding debts at present amount to about $10,000.

The first public meeting on Round Top since the burial of Mr. Moody occurred Sunday afternoon, as used to occur.

At the close of the service the entire company surrounded the grave of Mr. Moody and sang some of his favorite hymns.

The service was most impressive.

THE POPE PARTICIPATED.

Took Part In Ceremony of Veneration of Two Italian Saints—Appeared In Good Health.

ROME, June 11.—The pope went to St. Peter's cathedral, Sunday, to participate in the ceremony of veneration in the case of two Italian saints recently canonized. Thirty thousand people were present.

He was borne on the Sedia Gestoria, surrounded by several cardinals and the papal court. He seemed in good health, and when giving the blessing to the pilgrims rose from his seat briskly, as if he wished to reassure the congregation regarding his condition.

TO REPAIR RAILWAY.

AMERICANS WERE AMONG THEM.

McDonald Scored Chinese Government. Missionaries Murdered—Number of Native Christians Butchered—Nashville and Monocacy to Reinforce U. S. Fleet.

TIEN TSIN, June 13.—The special train that went to examine the line and reconnoiter returned here. The railway was found clear two miles beyond Yang Tauh. The engineers, with the guards, walked about a mile and a half further. They found the ties and two bridges burned and the railway torn up. They saw a few hundred persons, apparently villagers, gathered ahead of them.

The first repair train, with Admiral Seymour and his staff, 650 British, Captain McCalla's 100 Americans, 40 Italians and 25 Austrians, left here. A Hotchkiss and other guns were mounted on a car in front of the engine. The rest of the guns were mounted in the center of the train. A second train left at 11 with 600 British, Japanese, Russian and French troops. Repairing material and new rails were taken along.

There were 31 foreign war vessels at Taku.

A message from Peking to the admirals asserts that the situation is growing more dangerous for foreigners. All those at Peking have taken refuge in Legation street. The civilian males are under arms to fight with the regulars if necessary. The approaches to Legation street are surrounded by howling mobs of undisciplined soldiery, with cannon and bayonets. The International guard were holding off the mob, which screamed insults and threats.

This was the situation Saturday when the couriers got through with the latest dispatches. The empress dowager was amusing herself at the palace with theatricals.

It is reported that government arms are being dealt out to the Boxers. The troops of Yung Fuh Seang are said to be assisting to kill native Christians, after malignant tortures.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Admiral Kempf's force will be increased soon by the arrival of the Monocacy and the Nashville. With the additional marines these vessels accommodate the available force of men subject to Minister Couger's needs or demands will be considerably increased.

LONDON, June 11.—Sir Claude MacDonald, British minister in Peking, sent a telegram to Shanghai on June 7, saying in part:

"The movement against the foreigners, which has been allowed to grow to such an extent, has resulted in the burning of railway stations and in the interruption of railway communication for five days. Two British missionaries and several foreign missionaries have been murdered in the district near Peking. In the country round, numbers of converts have been murdered and chapels have been pillaged and destroyed, while in the capital itself the British missionaries have been obliged to leave their houses and to take refuge at the legation, which is defended by 75 marines.

"The Chinese government is effected by these events so far as to send high officials to parley with the Boxers, but it does not show any intention of summarily suppressing them. Probably it still has power to do so, but the throne is still strongly influenced by sympathy with the movement, and the spirit of the troops is doubtful. All is well up to the present."

LONDON, June 11.—A special dispatch from St. Petersburg, dated Saturday, June 9, says:

"I have learned from an absolutely reliable source that minute dispatches have been sent to the commanders of the Russian troops in Manchuria, directing them to prepare three regiments of Cossacks on the Chinese frontier, to be in readiness to enter on the day orders are received."

LONDON, June 11.—The Peking correspondent of The Times, telegraphing Sunday, said in part:

"The American mission buildings at Tung Chau, 12 miles from Peking, which were abandoned by the missionaries, have been looted and burned by the Chinese soldiery who were sent to protect them.

"Within three days 75 native Christians, well known men who had been trained for years by American missionaries, have been massacred near Tung Chau. Many of them were burned alive. The intimidation of Christians continues within Peking itself. Most of the mission compounds are closed, and the missionaries are being collected under the protection of the legation guards."

TWO KILLED IN RIOTS.

Two Others May Die From Wounds at St. Louis—Another Man May Lose His Hand.

ST. LOUIS, June 11.—Four men in a party of 100 or more striking employees of the Transit company who were returning from a labor parade in East St. Louis, were shot by members of the sheriff's posse, in front of the temporary barracks on Washington avenue, between Broadway and Sixth street. One is dead, two others, wounded in the head and abdomen, it was thought would die, and the fourth it was thought would lose a hand. About in front of the barracks occupied by the posse, the paraders attempted to assault the crew of a passing street car.

A brick was thrown and several shots were fired by the street car men, when members of the posse appeared on the street with their shotguns and attempted to rescue the street car men. In the melee it was estimated about ten shots were fired by the posse men who surrounded the mob, and there were four casualties as far as now known. Twenty-one prisoners were captured by the posse and taken into the barracks. One other shooting by a deputy sheriff was reported at the sheds of the Bellefontaine line. Fred Boehm, 65 years old, was killed.

DR. PAUL GIBIER DEAD.

He Died From the Effects of Injuries Received in a Runaway Accident.

TUXEDO PARK, N. Y., June 11.—Dr. Paul Gibier, head of a sanitarium at Suffern and of the Pasteur institute of New York city, died from the effects of injuries received in a runaway. Mrs. Horen, his mother-in-law, was injured, but not badly.

They started for a drive. They had not gone far from the house when the horse took fright at fireworks, which some boys were exploding in the road. The animal dashed down the road and a wheel of the vehicle caught in a tree. Dr. Gibier and Mrs. Horen were thrown to the ground. Dr. Gibier's head struck on a stone and he was rendered unconscious instantly.

The horse, with his harness trail after him, ran back home. Mrs. Gibier immediately sent workmen out to find the doctor and Mrs. Horen. They were carried home and physicians summoned. In spite of all efforts to revive Dr. Gibier, he died about midnight without regaining consciousness. Aside from the shock and a few bruises Mrs. Horen was not badly hurt.

The doctor was 49 years old. Mrs. Horen is about 72.

PORTRAITS IN THE WALL OF THE FAMOUS MARBLE ROOM.

A Slab of Stone in the Treasury Department That Shows a Perfect Profile of Queen Victoria and Other Interesting Pictures.

The often repeated statement that Uncle Sam is without sentiment is illustrated in a measure in the treasury department. The famous marble room, which cost the government $300,000, although still a place of beauty, is no longer an ornamental chamber only. The room around which tradition has woven many a curious tale, the room in which General Grant received the guests who attended his first inaugural ball, is now used as a cash room.

Long years ago, when the architect who planned the interior of the room saw his dream realized, when the painters and decorators had completed their labors and visitors were allowed to gaze upon its magnificence, it was declared to be the finest room in the country. Men and women of national and international fame have danced upon the marble floors where today stand prosaic counters and desks. The pretty gallery in which sat the famously beautiful women of those days, where society gossiped and belles and beaux carried on flirtations, is still retained. But it is empty, and no one, unless it be the spirits of those who once adorned the room, looks down upon the small army of employees who handle $262,000,000 each year before it is distributed throughout the United States.

This famous room of the treasury department has been used for this purpose for a number of years. The growing demands of the department made this necessary, but the place has not lost reputation even if it has become one of the government's workshops. The marble room of the treasury department is known far and wide and is a feature of interest to visitors on a tour of inspection of the building. The interior is constructed of marble brought from sunny Italy, from France and from Vermont.

F. E. Spinner was treasurer when the room was built. W. H. West was chief clerk, and A. B. Mullett was the supervising architect. Hugh McCulloch was secretary of the treasury, and his assistants were W. E. Chandler and J. F. Hartly. This information is proclaimed by two marble slabs placed above the doors. All the marble is without doubt the most magnificent that could be obtained. One of the squares, however, is particularly remarkable. It is a beautiful specimen of black Vermont marble. A crack runs through the middle of this square, the most remarkable one in the whole room. On it, as though drawn by an artist, is a picture of Queen Victoria, a full life sized figure of an old Quakeress and the head and shoulders of a French soldier, with his little round cap set jauntily on the side of his head, fastened with a cord that runs down the side of the face and under the chin.

The discovery of the faces and figures on the marble was made by Messenger W. R. Elliott. One day, while seated in front of the square, he was startled by the lines of alternate black and white forming the figure of the old Quakeress. A full side view of the old woman is shown. The traditional poke bonnet is pictured, a shawl covers the slightly drooped shoulders, and the hands are folded complacently in front of the body. It needs no steady gaze to bring out the picture. It is as perfect as though drawn by a master hand.

The face of Queen Victoria is also remarkably true to life. It requires no effort of imagination to draw out the contour of her face. Only the profile and a small portion of the shoulders are displayed. The face of Queen Victoria on the marble has given the officials no end of amusement. Several years ago, while a number of young English women who had visited this country for the purpose of attending a Christian Endeavor convention were being taken through the treasury department, they were shown the face of their beloved queen. They were greatly amazed at the likeness, and many exclamations of love and veneration were expressed. While admiring the queer designing of nature one of the young women declared that the English government should purchase the marble square.

of the square. The figure is half size and is in profile, like the other two. The shoulders are thrown back just as they are drawn by famous French military artists. Nothing could be more truly drawn than the round cap which is set half over the left ear. There are other faces and figures to be found on the square. Dogs, birds and countless grotesque figures can easily be traced by following the lines.—Washington Post.

He Couldn't Solve It.

As a train was approaching a town on the Great Northern railway in Ireland an intelligent looking young Irishman observed a lady standing up searching her pocket. She commenced to weep. "Have you been robbed?" he asked.

"Oh, no," she replied; "I've lost my ticket, and they will accuse me of fraud."

Seeing her distressed state of mind, he said:

"Oh, don't mind. Here, take my ticket, and I will give the guard a problem," while their fellow passengers awaited the scene at the station with interest.

When the train stopped, the guard collected all the tickets but one. "Where is your ticket?" he asked the young man.

"You have got my ticket," he replied.

"No, I have not got it. I'll call the station master and see about it."

"Where is your ticket?" asked the station master when he appeared.

"He has my ticket. See if he has a ticket in his hand with a small piece off the corner."

"Yes, you have, Dave. There it is."

"Well, see what that fit it?" said Pat, handing him the small piece, and it did. A look of surprise crept over the guard's face as he left the carriage, while Pat caused much amusement by exclaiming, "Begorra, I knew he could not solve it!"—London Tit-Bits.

Two of Nast's Faces.

William M. Tweed was a portly man of medium size, with a long, pendulous nose, little porcine eyes, fat, drooping cheeks and a straight, firm mouth that was decidedly his best feature. The outlines of his face were those of a Bartlett pear, little end upward, and I never saw craft so palpably written upon a human countenance. Nast used to be fond of drawing Tweed's face, by the way, as a sack of money. The general contour of his head lent itself to the outlines of the sack, and he used $ marks for the nose and eyes. Strange to say, it was a capital portrait.

Another of Nast's trick pictures was one of Roscoe Conkling. He would draw a large letter V, with a smaller v inside it and surmount the pair with an interrogation mark upside down. The big V represented Conkling's pointed beard, the smaller one his sharp nose and the interrogation point the Hyperion curl which he always allowed to fall negligently upon his forehead. That caricature made the haughty senator wild and exasperated him more than any bit of fun that was ever poked in his direction.—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

A Story of Amos Cummings.

One summer a number of years ago Amos Cummings passed two weeks on a pilot boat and took Ernest Jarrold, the author of "Mickey Finn Idylls," with him for company. One day a great storm arose, and the pilot boat was tossed about on the waves like a chip. Every minute a wave would dash over the deck and threaten to carry everything away and swamp the boat. Cummings and Jarrold were in the little cabin, the former lying in a bunk intently reading a book on the French revolution. Jarrold poked his head out to look at the storm, when a mountain of sea water fell with a boom on the deck and filled his eyes with spray. The boat gave a fearful lurch and careened until it seemed that she must turn completely over.

"This is awful, Amos," said Jarrold. "I'm going to put on a life preserver, for I don't think the boat can stand it many minutes longer."

"Oh, keep quiet, and let me read Mickey," said Cummings, never lifting his eyes from the page. "The men on this boat draw a regular salary to keep her afloat."—Saturday Evening Post.

A Labored Effort.

"What do you think of my play?" asked the author.

"Play!" grunted the leading man. "Play nothing! It's hard work."—Philadelphia North American.

TO REPAIR RAILWAY.

AMERICANS WERE AMONG THEM.

McDonald Scored Chinese Government. Missionaries Murdered—Number of Native Christians Butchered—Nashville and Monocacy to Reinforce U. S. Fleet.

Tien Tsin, June 13.—The special train that went to examine the line and reconnoiter returned here. The railway was found clear two miles beyond Yang Tauh. The engineers, with the guards, walked about a mile and a half further. They found the ties and two bridges burned and the railway torn up. They saw a few hundred persons, apparently villagers, gathered ahead of them.

The first repair train, with Admiral Seymour and his staff, 650 British, Captain McCalla's 100 Americans, 40 Italians and 25 Austrians, left here. A Hotchkiss and other guns were mounted on a car in front of the engine. The rest of the guns were mounted in the center of the train. A second train left at 11 with 600 British, Japanese, Russian and French troops. Repairing material and new rails were taken along.

There were 31 foreign war vessels at Taku.

A message from Pekin to the admirals asserts that the situation is growing more dangerous for foreigners. All those at Pekin have taken refuge in Legation street. The civilian males are under arms to fight with the regulars if necessary. The approaches to Legation street are surrounded by howling mobs of undisciplined soldiery, with cannon and bayonets. The International guard were holding off the mob, which screamed insults and threats.

This was the situation Saturday when the couriers got through with the latest dispatches. The empress dowager was amusing herself at the palace with theatricals.

It is reported that government arms are being dealt out to the Boxers. The troops of Yung Fuh Seang are said to be assisting to kill native Christians, after malignant tortures.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Admiral Kempff's force will be increased soon by the arrival of the Monocacy and the Nashville. With the additional marines these vessels accommodate the available force of men subject to Minister Conger's needs or demands will be considerably increased.

LONDON, June 11.—Sir Claude MacDonald, British minister in Pekin, sent a telegram to Shanghai on June 7, saying in part:

"The movement against the foreigners, which has been allowed to grow to such an extent, has resulted in the burning of railway stations and in the interruption of railway communication for five days. Two British missionaries and several foreign missionaries have been murdered in the district near Pekin. In the country round, numbers of converts have been murdered and chapels have been pillaged and destroyed, while in the capital itself the British missionaries have been obliged to leave their houses and to take refuge at the legation, which is defended by 75 marines.

"The Chinese government is effected by these event so far as to send high officials to parley with the Boxers, but it does not show any intention of summarily suppressing them. Probably it still has power to do so, but the throne is still strongly influenced by sympathy with the movement, and the spirit of the troops is doubtful. All is well up to the present."

LONDON, June 11.—A special dispatch from St. Petersburg, dated Saturday, June 9, says:

"I have learned from an absolutely reliable source that minute dispatches have been sent to the commanders of the Russian troops in Manchuria, directing them to prepare three regiments of Cossacks on the Chinese frontier, to be in readiness to enter on the day orders are received."

LONDON, June 11.—The Pekin correspondent of The Times, telegraphing Sunday, said in part:

"The American mission buildings at Tung Chau, 12 miles from Pekin, which were abandoned by the missionaries, have been looted and burned by the Chinese soldiery who were sent to protect them.

"Within three days 75 native Christians, well known men who had been trained for years by American missionaries, have been massacred near Tung Chau. Many of them were burned alive.

"The intimidation of Christians continues within Pekin itself. Most of the mission compounds are closed, and the missionaries are being collected under the protection of the legation guards."

TWO KILLED IN RIOTS.

Two Others May Die From Wounds at St. Louis—Another Man May Lose His Hand.

St. Louis, June 11.—Four men in a party of 100 or more striking employees of the Transit company who were returning from a labor parade in East St. Louis, were shot by members of the sheriff's posse, in front of the temporary barracks on Washington avenue, between Broadway and Sixth street. One is dead, two others, wounded in the head and abdomen, it was thought would die, and the fourth it was thought would lose a hand. About in front of the barracks occupied by the posse committed the paraders attempted to assault the crew of a passing street car.

A brick was thrown and several shots were fired by the street car men, when members of the posse appeared on the street with their shotguns and attempted to rescue the street car men. In the melee it was estimated about ten shots were fired by the posse men who surrounded the mob, and there were four casualties as far as now known. Twenty-one prisoners were captured by the posse and taken into the barracks. One other shooting by a deputy sheriff was reported at the sheds of the Bellefontaine line. Fred Boehm, 65 years old, was killed.

DR. PAUL GIBIER DEAD.

He Died From the Effects of Injuries Received in a Runaway Accident.

TUXEDO PARK, N. Y., June 11.—Dr. Paul Gibier, head of a sanitarium at Suffern and of the Pasteur institute of New York city, died from the effects of injuries received in a runaway Mrs. Horen, his mother-in-law, was injured, but not badly.

They started for a drive. They had not gone far from the house when the horse took fright at fireworks, which some boys were exploding in the road. The animal dashed down the road and a wheel of the vehicle caught in a tree. Dr. Gibier and Mrs. Horen were thrown to the ground. Dr. Gibier's head came on a stone and he was rendered unconscious instantly.

The horse, with his harness trail after him, ran back home. Mrs. Gibier immediately sent workmen out to find the doctor and Mrs. Horen. They were carried home and physicians summoned. In spite of all efforts to revive Dr. Gibier, he died about midnight without regaining consciousness. Aside from the shock and a few bruises Mrs. Horen was not badly hurt.

The doctor was 49 years old. Mrs. Horen is about 72.

FIRST M. E. CHURCH.

Children's Day Was Unusually Interesting and a Great Audience Was Present.

Everything passed off pleasantly and the occasion will long be remembered with pleasure. The decorations were in extremely good taste. The songs and recitations were all that could be desired. One little tot, a mere baby, rendered a Sabbath school selection, accompanied by the organ, and carried the tune to perfection, apparently unembarrassed by the presence of the great crowd. The Phillis quartet gave a selection in splendid voice and time. The quartet was booked for several selections, but time forbade the rendering of them and they were postponed until the evening service.

The ordinance of baptism was gone through with, and quite a number of infants were baptized. One of the wee ones cried vociferously when the water reached its head; a second little one attempted to dodge the loving hand of the pastor, and a third baby made heroic and determined effort to lift the hand of the minister, although the child did not appear to be frightened in the least. The little one's battle caused audible smites all over the church, from old and young, and we miss our guess if the officiating minister did not have hard work to control himself and refrain from smiling. A fourth infant seemed to like the service, and cooed and laughed in Dr. Crawford's face. Several names were added to the church record, by letter and upon probation. The membership of this church is growing rapidly and much good is evidently being accomplished.

On Trial.

Lisbon, June 11.—(Special)—The case of Frank Geiss vs. Newton Turner is on trial in common pleas court today. The parties are both from Wellsville and Geiss alleges violation of contract and sued for $400 damages. Especially requests that its subscribers in calling for parties out of their respective towns, give the central operator not only the name of the place, but the name or number of the party.

Do not ask your operator to give you the place and then ask the operator there to get you your party. That is confusing your central operator.

The Columbiana Independent rises to remark that the teetotaler is rapidly becoming the only man who can hold permanent positions of trust with railroad companies and other concerns who have a strict regard for business methods. The sober upright man has waited a long time to receive such recognition. And now that day is so near at hand, the shattered bums and tiplers at the bowl will be obliged to reform at once or step down and out, many of them will do the latter.—New Waterford Magnet.

We received this week a new lot of fine Dress Pantaloon; usual price $7. We are selling them at $5.
